Expanding our understanding of the possibilities and challenges inherent in the expression of same sex desire before the Civil War David Greven identifies a pattern of what he calls gender protest and sexual possibility recurring in antebellum works He suggests that major authors such as Margaret Fuller Edgar Allan Poe Herman Melville and Nathaniel Hawthorne consciously sought to represent same sex desire in their writings Focusing especially on conceptions of the melancholia of gender identification and shame Greven argues that same sex desire was inextricably enmeshed in scenes of gender role strain as exemplified in the extent to which The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym depicts masculine identity adrift and in disarray Greven finds similarly compelling representations of gender protest in Fuller s exploration of the crisis of gendered identity in Summer on the Lakes in Melville s representation of Redburn s experience of gender nonconformity and in

Hawthorne's complicated delineation of desire in The Scarlet Letter As Greven shows antebellum authors not only took up the taboo subjects of same sex desire and female sexuality but were adept in their use of a variety of rhetorical means for expressing the inexpressible

The Ethics of Marginality John Champagne, 1995 Is celebration of culturally marginalized people by the dominant culture actually benefitting those who are oppressed Whose stakes are served in such a celebration and how are existing power relations altered These are some of the questions John Champagne asks in this original and timely critique which moves gay studies beyond both identity politics and the rights discourse within which much of contemporary gay studies is positioned Champagne argues that in the modern West culturally marginalized people such as gays cannot define and legitimate their own existence outside the framework established for them by the dominant group To illustrate his premise Champagne analyzes a number of recent films including Paris is Burning Urinal and Marlon Riggs 1989 video Tongues Untied along with gay pornography using the work of such critics of difference as Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault and Gayatri Spivak He calls on the marginalized individual to elaborate a practice of critical self conduct and to work to understand his or her own subjectivity as having been produced as an entity along a variety of different registers only some of which might be said to be marginalized The Ethics of Marginality situates itself at the intersection of English cultural studies film studies and gay and lesbian studies It offers a powerful critique of contemporary approaches to studies of the other while promising to establish a groundbreaking and controversial new theoretical model for such studies
