Gender, Power and Relationships Charlotte Burck,Bebe Speed,2006-11-22 Gender Power and Relationships is a follow up volume to Gender and Power in Families Routledge 1989 which marked a milestone in the application of feminist thinking to therapeutic work with families bringing new ideas to students trainers and professionals Contributions from leading practitioners demonstrate how feminist ideas have been taken up by therapists in a variety of different settings The chapters explore and extend previous debates on sexual and physical abuse and ethnicity addressing the many contradictions and dilemmas inherent in this work for feminist systemic approaches They also consider changing family structures and the role of men within them gendered aspects of HIV prevention and work with women drug addicts and a variety of other approaches each set in the context of an overview of feminist theories of the family Child Welfare Professionals and Incest Families Ingrid Thompson-Cooper, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Little research has been done on the nature of decision making by child welfare professionals in child abuse cases or on the impact of the different approaches on victims and their families This text compares a system which relies heavily on criminal prosecution to handle child abuse cases England with a system that is more treatment orientated and depends primarily on child welfare and clinical services Canada The study examines the extent and nature of the incestuous abuse how it was disclosed and the initial response from the professionals It then looks at how the cases are processed through child welfare and criminal justice systems with attention paid to the decisions made throughout The nature of the social service contacts with the family are also examined as are the type and length of treatment It attempts to determine what factors influence the legal and clinical decisions that are made by various professionals throughout the whole process The Handbook of Clinical Intervention with Young People who Sexually Abuse Gary O'Reilly, William L. Marshall, Alan Carr, Richard C. Beckett, 2004-08 This Handbook provides invaluable reviews of the growing body of empirical and theoretical knowledge in this field and clearly demonstrates how this knowledge can be used to guide and develop evidence based practice for assessment and treatment Safeguarding Children and Young People Stella Coleman, Corinne May-Chahal, 2013-06-17 Written for novice practitioners and those entering child care work from other sectors this volume presents an overview of the skills required to carry out child protection work according to acknowledged best practice guidelines Constructive Work with Offenders Kevin Gorman, 2006 Constructive Work with Offenders offers a challenge to many of the assumptions of criminal justice policy and the dominant approaches to practice The contributors advocate an emphasis on constructive work with offenders that harnesses their positive strengths and resources and offers inclusive approaches to effective offender assessment and intervention Taking a fresh look at much received knowledge they proclaim that constructive work with offenders is both possible and increasingly warranted and encourage practitioners to develop new skills and adapt existing expertise to the rapidly changing requirements of the criminal justice system This book will be of interest to practitioners trainers managers and researchers in the criminal justice system as well as academics and students in the field of criminology and related disciplines
