Convictions Courtney M. Booker, 2012-02-28 How do people in both the past and the present think about moments of social and political crisis and how do they respond to them What are the interpretive codes by which troubling events are read and given meaning and what part do these codes play in suggesting specific strategies for coping with the world In Past Convictions Courtney Booker attempts to answer these questions by examining the controversial divestiture and public penance of Charlemagne's son the Emperor Louis the Pious in 833 Historians have customarily viewed the event as marking the beginning of the end of the Carolingian dynasty Exploring how both contemporaries and subsequent generations thought about Louis's forfeiture of the throne Booker contends that certain vivid ninth century narratives reveal a close but ephemeral connection between historiography and the generic conventions of comedy and tragedy In tracing how writers of later centuries built upon these dramatic Carolingian accounts to tell a larger story of faith betrayal political expediency and decline he explicates the ways historiography shapes our vision of the past and what we think we know about it and the ways its interpretive models may fall short Vow of the Shadow King Sylvia Mercedes, 2025-01-14 The viral TikTok fantasy
