Shadow Behind The Curtain:

Flower Shadows Behind the Curtain, 1959      Flower Shadows Behind the Curtain Ssü-ch'iao-chü-shih, 1959      Shadow Behind the Curtain Velda Johnston, 1987-09-01 Deborah opposes the acting chief of police in her efforts to reopen a twenty year old murder case to clear her father's name and stirs up a secret violent enemy      Flower shadows behind the curtain Ko lien hua ying, 1959      Time Driven Adrian Johnston, 2005-07-27 Freud outlines two types of conflict that between drives and reality and that between the drives themselves Adrian Johnston identifies a third the conflict embedded within each and every drive      Censoring an Iranian Love Story Shahriar Mandanipour, 2009-05-05 A NEW YORKER BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR One of Iran's most important living fiction writers The Guardian shows what it's like to live and love there today A haunting portrait of life in the Islamic Republic of Iran The New York Times In a country where mere proximity between a man and a woman may be the prologue to deadly sin where illicit passion is punished by imprisonment or even death telling that most redemptive of human narratives becomes the greatest literary challenge If conducting a love affair in modern Iran is not a simple undertaking then telling the story of that love may be even more difficult Shahriar Mandanipour author of Moon Brow evokes a pair of young lovers who find each other despite surreal persecution and repressive parents through coded messages and internet chat rooms and triumphantly their story entwines with an account of their creator's struggle Inventive darkly comic and profoundly touching Censoring an Iranian Love Story celebrates both the unquenchable power of the written word and a love that is doomed glorious and utterly real      The Storyteller's Shadows Bill Reed, 2018-03-03 In a volume containing 14 original plays including three shadow play adaptations of Gogol Morton and Runyon classics the author resurrects a sadly neglected theatre genre the shadow play combining traditional shadow techniques with normal acting to create full bodied mainstream plays      Chinese Shadow Theatre Fan-Pen Li Chen, 2007 In her study of Chinese shadow theatre Fan Pen Li Chen documents and corrects misconceptions about this once popular art form She argues how a traditional folk theatre reflected and subverted Chinese popular culture      The Semiotics of Light and Shadows Piotr Sadowski, 2017-12-28 Lighting and shadows are used within a range of art forms to create aesthetic effects Piotr Sadowski's study of light and shadow in Weimar cinema and contemporaneous visual arts is underpinned by the evolutionary semiotic theories of indexicality and iconicity These theories explain the unique communicative and emotive power of light and shadow when used in contemporary indexical media including the shadow theatre silhouette portraits camera obscura photography and film In particular Sadowski highlights the aesthetic and emotional significance of shadows The cast shadow as an indexical sign maintains a physical connection with its near present referent such as a hidden person stimulating a viewer's imagination and provoking responses including anxiety or curiosity The cinematic shadow plays a stylistic role by enhancing image texture depth of field and tonal contrast of cinematic moments Such enhancements are especially important in monochromatic films and Sadowski interweaves the book with accounts of seminal Weimar cinema moments Sadowski's book is distinctive for combining historical materials and theoretical approaches to develop a deeper understanding of Weimar cinema and other contemporary art forms. The Semiotics of Light and Shadows is an ideal resource for both scholars and students working in linguistics, semiotics, film, media, and visual arts.

The Shadow Teller's Plays Bill Reed, 2017-12-13 In a volume containing 14 original plays including three shadow play adaptations of Gogol, Morton and Runyon classics, the author resurrects a sadly neglected theatre genre: the shadow play, combining traditional shadow techniques with normal acting to create full-bodied mainstream plays. These plays do not use shadow puppetry type techniques that need people contorting themselves, however wonderfully to form shapes, but rather normal acting prowess together and usual props of mainstream theatre with the new back-lighting technologies. The result is plays which are realistic and yet overlain with the imaginative fantasies that figure theatre can bring in a fallow area lying between mime and conventional stage plays: a rediscovered form of a modern staging that crosses between live and shadow effect, whether in workshopping for all ages and group size or for professional productions. Shadow plays comprise the theatre landscape for live actors re-skilled to jump from behind the screen, one-dimensional acting to front of the screen, three-dimensional acting at any moment of the play. They allow a new and exciting way of presenting the combination of the real and the surreal in ways that offer broadened audience and student experiences under the master of storytelling of a shadow teller together with the master of pacing of a mobile light spotter.

The Nature of Life J.P. LaRue, 2012-10-02 This book, entitled The Nature of Life, is meant to be a sequel to the book A Beautiful Tragedy. The author J.P. LaRue takes the reader on a journey through all the seasons and moods of Mother Nature with some added life lessons along the way. The Nature of Life describes the exquisite beauty and stark cruelty that is found in all of nature. The poems in this book portray many of the contrasts that are found in life and in nature along with powerful imagery and deep meaning. This book reflects the author's love of the outdoors. The author J.P. LaRue is blind. This book, The Nature of Life, along with his other titles, was written entirely by using Morse code. It is a testament to his creativity and to his appreciation of life and nature that inspired this book.

The Dramatic Reciter Richard Linthicum, 1902 Munsey's Weekly, 1922 Psycho in the Shower Philip J. Skerry, 2009-04-01 This is a brilliant study of one scene in one movie: the shower scene from Psycho. Every other chapter is an extended interview with someone who worked on the original film or on Gus van Sant's remake from a few years ago. The non-interview chapters take various approaches to film criticism and refer often to the author and his writing of this book. It's lightly done but compelling and often very entertaining.
