Shadowed Ground Americas Landscapes Of Violence And Tragedy:

Shadowed Ground Kenneth E. Foote, 2013-12-06 Winner John Brinckerhoff Jackson Prize Association of American Geographers 1997 Shadowed Ground explores how and why Americans have memorialized or not the sites of tragic and violent events spanning three centuries of history and every region of the country For this revised edition Kenneth Foote has written a new concluding chapter that looks at the evolving responses to recent acts of violence and terror including the destruction of the Branch Davidian compound at Waco Texas the Oklahoma City bombing the Columbine High School massacre and the terrorist attacks of 9 11

Shadowed Ground Kenneth E. Foote, 1997 From the battlefield at Gettysburg to the Oklahoma City block where the Alfred P Murrah Federal Building once stood sites of violence and tragedy have left indelible marks on the American landscape Some have become places of pilgrimage where visitors mourn losses learn lessons from the tragedy and experience renewal Others became empty places where nothing remains to commemorate or even to mark the occurrence In this pioneering book Kenneth E Foote explores how and why Americans have memorialized or not the sites of tragic and violent events Drawing on years of travel and reflection he traces the history of sites spanning three centuries and every region of the United States Foote deduces that Americans usually react to the scenes of tragedy in one of four ways Many places undergo public sanctification such as Memphis Lorraine Motel where Martin Luther King Jr was assassinated Some are simply designated with a marker while others are rectified and returned to normal use Those that produce shame and revulsion are often obliterated and left empty These differing reactions to sites of violence offer an important new perspective to the debate over violence in American society

Controversial Monuments and Memorials David B. Allison, 2023-09-02 The impetus for the first edition was violent actions the white supremacist rally in Charlottesville Virginia in 2017 which was touched off by discussions about removing a statue to Robert E Lee and resulted in the death of Heather Heyer Since the publication of the first edition both history and democracy are being threatened in ways that we were only seeing small glimpses of in 2018 Today attempts to elevate new or more complex history has been met with vilification States across the country have passed legislation to ban critical race theory from being taught in public schools and are seeking ways to limit what teachers are allowed to teach about slavery and race in the United States These threats are unlikely to abate As such our responsibility as historians community leaders museum professionals and citizens is to redouble our efforts to share human stories in relatable ways and to exercise our rights and wield our power whenever and however we can The revised edition tackles the great issues of our time against the backdrop of monument culture and historical truth
