Feminist Collections, 2000 In the Shadow of the Great War Jochen Böhrer, Ota Konrád, Rudolf Kučera, 2021-01-10 Whether victorious or not Central European states faced fundamental challenges after the First World War as they struggled to contain ongoing violence and forge peaceful societies This collection explores the various forms of violence these nations confronted during this period which effectively transformed the region into a laboratory for state building Employing a bottom up approach to understanding everyday life these studies trace the contours of individual and mass violence in the interwar era while illuminating their effects upon politics intellectual developments and the arts Great Lakes and Midwest Catalog Partners Book Distributing, 2007 The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital Lisa Lowe, David Lloyd, 1997-11-17 Global in scope but refusing a familiar totalizing theoretical framework the essays in The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital demonstrate how localized and resistant social practices including anticolonial and feminist struggles peasant revolts labor organizing and various cultural movements challenge contemporary capitalism as a highly differentiated mode of production Reworking Marxist critique these essays on Asia Latin America the Caribbean North America and Europe advance a new understanding of cultural politics within the context of transnational neocolonial capitalism This perspective contributes to an overall critique of traditional approaches to modernity development and linear liberal narratives of culture history and democratic institutions It also frames a set of alternative social practices that allows for connections to be made between feminist politics among immigrant women in Britain women of color in the United States and Muslim women in Iran Egypt Pakistan and Canada the work of subaltern studies in India the Philippines and Mexico and antiracist social movements in North and South America the Caribbean and Europe These connections displace modes of opposition traditionally defined in relation to the modern state and enable a rethinking of political practice in the era of global capitalism Contributors Tani E Barlow Nandi Bhatia Dipesh Chakrabarty Chungmoo Choi Clara Connolly Angela Davis Arturo Escobar Grant Farred Homa Hoodfar Reynaldo C Iletto George Lipsitz David Lloyd Lisa Lowe Martin F Manalansan IV Aihwa Ong Pragna Patel Jos Rabasa Maria Josefina Salda a Portillo Jaqueline Urla Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Celeste Vaughan Curington, 2024-09-13 Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Race Gender and Care Work in Portugal examines the everyday lives of an African descendant care service workforce that labors in an ostensibly anti racial Europe and against the backdrop of the Portuguese colonial empire While much of the literature on global care work has focused on Asian and Latine migrant care workers there is comparatively less research that explicitly examines African care workers and their migration histories to Europe Sociologist Celeste Vaughan Curington focuses on Portugal a European setting with comparatively liberal policies around family settlement and naturalization for migrants In this setting rapid urbanization in the late twentieth century along with a national push to reconcile work and family has shaped the growth of paid home care and cleaning service industries Many researchers focus on informal work settings where immigrant rights are restricted and many workers are undocumented or without permanent residence status Curington instead examines workers who have accessed citizenship or permanent residence status and also explores African women s experiences laboring in care and service industries in the formal market revealing how deeply colonial and intersectional logics of a racialized and international division of reproductive labor in Portugal render these women hyper invisible and hyper visible as appropriate workers in Lisbon

The Long Shadow of the Border Ida Marie Savio Vammen, Signe Cold-Ravnkilde, Hans Lucht, 2023-06-19 This book delves beyond the spectacular images of African migrants struggling to scale border fences or cross the Mediterranean in unseaworthy rubber dinghies by unpacking the policies and emerging practices that shape contemporary border governance in the expanding EU African borderlands For decades Africa has been the scene of a wide range of European interventions aimed at restraining irregularised migration to Europe creating an accelerated moment of control and confinement Today the externalisation of Europe s borders into Africa encompasses agreements on the return of migrants securitised border operations and projects under the EU s Emergency Trust Fund for Africa At a time when safe and legal mobility is limited and the human social and political conditions of African migrants are severely challenged this book emphasises how European efforts are both assisted but also resisted by local actors with agendas of their own Based on ethnographic fieldwork the different contributions vividly portray how African lives continue to be shaped by Europe s desire to contain and govern human mobility and how dominant spatial geopolitics are contested on various levels This book will be of particular value to students and researchers interested in African studies International

Politics Border Governance Anthropology Human Geography and Global Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics In the Shadow of Greatness Michael Menager, 2020-09-01 In this unusual biography Michael Menager coaxes from the shadows of history five women who devoted themselves to the greatness of a genius in their lives At times the book reads like a love story at other times an adventure but throughout their five lives intertwine to tell one story of selfless devotion and a greatness that doesn't crave recognition This book covers the lives and works of Maria Noyes wife of Aldous Huxley Françoise Gilot mistress of Pablo Picasso Vera Nabokov wife of Vladimir Nabokov Helen Dukas secretary to Albert Einstein and Isabel Burton wife and partner of Sir Richard Burton The Liberal

Heartland Jon K. Lauck, Catherine McNicol Stock, 2025-04-29 Over the last two decades the political narrative of the liberal coasts and the conservative heartland has become something of a truism leading many Democrats to write off much of the Midwest as a Republican stronghold Today's polarized divide between rural and urban voters makes it easy to forget that things have not always been this way The Liberal Heartland is a powerful reminder that the American Midwest has a progressive legacy that rivals the coasts Across twenty chapters The Liberal Heartland traces the political history of this region from the post New Deal period to the rise of the New Right and Donald Trump's right wing populism The contributors explore the way liberals and progressives across the Midwest fought for expanding environmental protection engaged in community activism developed a queer labor coalition before Stonewall struggled for women's rights and representation in the Great Plains states opposed the death penalty and mobilized for Indigenous self-determination among other topics In addition to well-known leaders like Harry Truman and George McGovern the book highlights lesser-known figures such as Lydia Cady Langer Mary Jean Collins Richard Hatcher Jim Jontz and Paul Wellstone A companion to the 2020 volume The Conservative Heartland The Liberal Heartland explores the history of the Midwest from a less-acknowledged perspective recounting often-forgotten stories that demonstrate the importance of the Midwest for New Deal liberalism and various forms of left-wing politics This is a long-overdue book that represents a fresh look at the American heartland Wandering

Women Laura Di Bianco, 2022-12-06 Wandering Women: Urban Ecologies of Italian Feminist Filmmaking explores the work of contemporary Italian women directors from feminist and ecological perspectives Mostly relegated to the margins of the cultural scene and concerned with women's marginality the compelling films Wandering Women sheds light on tell stories of displacement and liminality that unfold through the act of walking in the city The unusual emptiness of the cities that the nomadic female protagonists traverse highlights the absence of and their wish for life-sustaining communities Laura Di Bianco contends that women's urban filmmaking while articulating a claim for belonging and asserting cinematic and social agency brings into view landscapes of the Anthropocene where urban decay and the erasure of nature intersect with human alienation Though a minor cinema it is also a powerful movement of resistance against the dominant male narratives about the world we inhabit Based on interviews with directors Wandering Women deepens the understanding of contemporary

The way an army thinks about and understands warfare has a tremendous impact on its organization training and operations The central ideas of that understanding form a nation s way of warfare that influences decisions on and off the battlefield From the disasters of the War of 1812 Winfield Scott ensured that America adopted a series of ideas formed in the crucible of the Wars of the French Revolution and epitomized by Napoleon Reflecting American cultural changes these French ideas dominated American warfare on the battlefields of the Mexican American War the American Civil War the Spanish American War and World War I America remained committed to these ideas until cultural pressures and the successes of German Blitzkrieg from 1939 1940 led George C Marshall to orchestrate the adoption of a different understanding of warfare Michael A Bonura examines concrete battlefield tactics army regulations and theoretical works on war as they were presented in American army education manuals professional journals and the popular press to demonstrate that as a cultural construction warfare and ways of warfare can be transnational and influence other nations Daily Life of Women Colleen Boyett,H.
