Shadows in the Bayou Jaycee Bisogno,2025-02-06 This is based on a true crime story In the bleak dawn of the 1950s a young unmarried mother s life was irrevocably fractured The abduction of her son a savage violation became a generational wound a festering sore that poisoned her existence for decades This vibrant hopeful woman barely out of adolescence had poured her soul into nurturing her child only to have that love cruelly violently ripped away Her final pained sigh was a heartbreakingly testament to her enduring anguish a desperate barely audible plea We must find George echoing with a lifetime s worth of unanswered questions and unbearable sorrow Shadows Kristen Proby,2019-10-29 Everything changes the day Cassian Winslow joins my ghost walking tour and knocks my world off its axis An unspeakable evil is loose in New Orleans taking young women and leaving a bloodbath in his wake More shadows lurking for me More unhappy dead There might be a way to stop it Open myself up to Cassian If I do it could spell his death But if I don t it s mine Bayou Shadows Gordon Jacobson,2024-12-05 The ground shook violently and the shadow let out a deafening scream as the bayou s power surged into it The creature writhed and twisted its form flickering as it tried to break free from their combined attack But the magic of the bayou was stronger The darkness had no place here not in the heart of the land it had once tried to consume With one final ear piercing wail the shadow collapsed inward imploding into itself The clearing was bathed in a brilliant flash of light and when it faded the creature was gone The silence that followed was absolute The air felt lighter the oppressive weight of the darkness lifted The bayou once thick with shadows now felt open and alive the pulse of the land steady and calm Abigail St Claire investigates the many disappearances that are occurring in the town of Bayou Shadows This is Book One in the trilogy of Bayou Shadows Life Streams Lynette M.
