Swoon: Great Seducers and Why Women Love Them Betsy Prioleau, 2013-02-04 Lose yourself Swoon has wicked fun answering that age old query What do women want Chicago Tribune Contrary to popular myth and dogma the men who consistently beguile women belie the familiar stereotypes satanic rake alpha stud slick player Mr Nice or big money mogul As Betsy Prioleau author of Seductress points out in this surprising insightful study legendary ladies men are a different complex species altogether often without looks or money They fit no known template and possess a cache of powerful erotic secrets With wit and erudition Prioleau cuts through the cultural lore and reveals who these master lovers really are and the arts they practice to enswoon women What she discovers is revolutionary Using evidence from science popular culture fiction anthropology and history and from interviews with colorful real world ladykillers Prioleau finds that great seducers share a constellation of unusual traits While these men run the gamut they radiate joie de vivre intensity and sex appeal above all they adore women They listen praise amuse and delight and they know their way around the bedroom And they've finessed the hardest part locking in and revving desire Women never tire of these fascinators and often like Casanova's conquests remain besotted for life Finally Prioleau takes stock of the contemporary culture and asks where are the Casanovas of today After a critique of the twenty first century sexual malaise the gulf between the sexes and women's record discontent she compellingly argues that society needs ladies men more than ever Groundbreaking and provocative Swoon is underpinned with sharp analysis brilliant research and served up with seductive verve

Love in the Religions of the World Paul Caringella, Gregory Kaplan, 2011-11-15 The study of comparative religion is no longer a matter merely for those interested in religion it is a matter of concern for everybody For irrespective of whether one believes in God religion is a major characteristic of identity And in the post 9 11 world every educated person is aware of how important it is to understand what others believe This collection of essays by international scholars emerged from an intense and powerful dialogue at the University of Hong Kong about love in the major religions of the world Eschewing the comforting but ultimately erroneous and dangerous idea that all religions believe more or less the same thing each essay examines the role and nature of love in a major religion of the world It is an invaluable guide for students teachers and the general reader wanting to cut through the morass of doctrinal differences and emphases in the world's religions It also makes an important contribution to the urgent issue of dialogue amongst faiths and cultures

Love Diogenes Allen, 2006-12-14 Love is often seen as overwhelming yet fleeting romantic passion between a woman and a man Diogenes Allen leads us to understand our love for families for friends and for God with an equivalent fascination and intensity Christianity recognizes that every person carries an inalienable value simply by existing Love recognizes this value in other people and allows loved ones to exist freely in their own way Partners in romantic love even though they are hopelessly dependent on one another must struggle to support the other's independence As we struggle to realize our own dependence on others meanwhile recognizing their inherent worth without us our loves human and divine find new depth and passion

God's Enduring Love in the Book of Hosea Joy Philip Kakkanattu, 2006 Joy Philip Kakkanattu provides an exegetical and theological analysis of an important and difficult text of the Old Testament through a synchronic and diachronic reading Detailed critical notes which discuss the textual difficulties accompany the translation of the text from Hebrew In the detailed exegesis special attention is given to study of the key terms theologically significant in Hos 11 1 11 against the context of the whole book The exegesis shows that in Hos 11 8 9 it is not the repentance of Yahweh that causes the withholding of His anger against Israel but Yahweh's constancy in His election of Israel as His son More than a change of heart the decision not to execute the deserved judgement witnesses Yahweh's divine nature Special attention is dedicated to the parent metaphor employed in Hos 11 1 11 It is concluded that more than expressing the Yahweh Israel relationship as a father son relationship the text speaks of it in terms of parent child relationship In the diachronic analysis the author deals with the origin and formation of Hos 11 1 11
