Sonnets Gerald Hammond, 1981-06-18 Get to the End Michael Hickey, 2016-03-07 Get to the End is written about the end times i e the end of the world and history as we know it But it is written from a Catholic perspective There are many books on the market that speak to the end times however they are all written from a Protestant perspective and for the most part they are written by Christians from conservative churches who are generally Fundamentalist Christians There are virtually no books written about the end times from a Catholic perspective The few that have been written with a Catholic perspective of the end times have been written for the most part by Catholic priests and they are generally weighed down heavily in doctrine and dogma This will be one of the first on the subject written by a Catholic layman who has a broader perspective than Catholic Doctrine and Dogma and who views himself as uniquely in the world but not of the world So

Knight's Tale Frieda Elaine Penninger, 1993 This book examines Troilus and Criseyde and The Knight s Tale as poems which work the same plot to contrasting tragic and joyous endings but for the same purpose of exploring the folly of electing the temporal world over the eternal It demonstrates that the tragedy of Troilus and Criseyde is a consequence of the folly of relying on Fortune and temporal bliss and works through the pattern of a similar dependence in The Knight's Tale It then develops the portrayal of the protagonists of the poems as Fortune's Fools through a scrutiny of courtship as game of play of caritas and cupiditas contrasted with the implications of pity mercy grace and love as used in temporal contexts in the poem but defined theologically elsewhere in Chaucer and of the limitations of knighthood and chivalry as defined by the world of the poems

Sex, Love, and Romance in the Mass Media Mary-Lou Galician, 2004-07-16 This accessible yet research based text offers both foundational theories and practical applications of analysis and criticism of mass media portrayals of sex love and romance in a wide variety of mass media from entertainment to advertising to news The multidisciplinary methodological perspective comes out of a media literacy approach and embraces a variety of traditions along the quantitative qualitative continuum Focused on portrayals of male female coupleship the book is centered around the 12 major myths and stereotypes of Galician's Dr FUN's Mass Media Love Quiz each of which has a corresponding Dr Galician Prescription that encapsulates healthy strategies rarely found in the mass media to counteract that myth or stereotype Readers learn how to identify illustrate deconstruct evaluate and reframe the mass media's mythic and stereotypic portrayals of sex love and romance They also learn how to use their own formal critical evaluations to clarify their own values and as media consumers or mass communication creators to share their insights with others Thus the learning objectives encompass all three major educational domains cognitive affective and behavioral Part I of this book covers the five foundations myths and stereotypes of love and coupleship models of realistic and constructive love and coupleship mass media storytelling approaches techniques and devices research and theories of mass media effects and strategies and skills of media literacy Part II is devoted to exploring the myths and stereotypes identified in the Quiz Following several brief case studies and a summary of related research and commentary each chapter focuses on analyses and criticisms of portrayals of sex love and romance in the content of news and advertising as well as entertainment using Galician's Seven Step Disillusioning Directions Each chapter concludes with a Disillusion Digest While critical of unrealistic portrayals and the damage they can cause unsuspecting media consumers Galician a media literacy advocate is not anti media Rather her goal is to empower consumers to use these portrayals with more awareness of their possible consequences to resist adopting them as models for actual behavior and to consciously reframe them into more realistic productive scenarios This unique text is an engaging classroom resource for media literacy media and relationships and media and society coursework

The Queens of Aragon E. L. Miron, 1913

Agrotopias Abby L. Goode, 2022-08-24 In this book Abby L Goode reveals the foundations of American environmentalism and the enduring partnership between racism eugenics and agrarian ideals in the United States Throughout the nineteenth century writers as diverse as Martin Delany Charlotte Perkins Gilman and Walt Whitman worried about unsustainable conditions such as population growth and plantation slavery In response they imagined agrotopias sustainable societies unaffected by the nation's agricultural and population crises elsewhere Though seemingly progressive these agrotopian visions depicted selective breeding and racial improvement as the path to environmental stability In this fascinating study Goode uncovers an early sustainability rhetoric interested in shaping just as much as sustaining the American population Showing how ideas about race and reproduction were central to early sustainability thinking Goode unearths an alternative environmental archive that ranges from gothic novels to Black nationalist manifestos from Waco Texas to the West Indies from city tenements to White House kitchen gardens Exposing the eugenic foundations of some of our most well regarded environmental traditions this book compels us to reexamine the benevolence of American environmental thought
