Jolly, Penny Howell Jolly, 1997-01-01 The stunning mosaics that illustrate the story of Creation in the church of San Marco in Venice are the focus of Penny Howell Jolly's compelling and provocative book Scholars of medieval art have long been interested in the Genesis mosaics because they copy a nearly destroyed fifth century illuminated Greek manuscript known as the Cotton Genesis But instead of seeing the mosaics as a vehicle for reconstructing a lost cycle of paintings Jolly presents them as a social document revealing the essential misogyny that existed in thirteenth century Venice Jolly analyzes more than twenty scenes one by one in narrative order and her perceptive reading goes well beyond what the Genesis Vulgate text says about Eve and Adam The mosaics establish Eve as the culpable character from the very moment of her Creation says Jolly and depict her as dangerous and unrepentant at the end Incorporating both feminist religious and narratological studies Jolly poses important questions on the nature of visual language as opposed to verbal language The very ability of visual forms to recall a rich variety of references is one source of their power and propaganda must have enough breadth of reference to be read by diverse groups The San Marco cupola Jolly maintains is dealing in powerful propaganda and her pictorial observations offer an articulate and refreshing new view of this well known work

Giambologna Mary Weitzel Gibbons, Mary Gibbons Weitzel, Giambologna, 1995-01-01 Mary Gibbons's appraisal provides the first scholarly study of Giambologna's remarkably original religious sculpture in relief In their pictorial austerity and unabashedly metallic forms Giambologna's bronze narratives present us with bold innovations This study offers new photographic documentation archival discoveries and most significantly new ideas and fresh perceptions of Giambologna's art Malcolm Campbell University of Pennsylvania This timely interdisciplinary study makes a major contribution integrating Genoa into Late Medieval Renaissance and Baroque studies Mary Gibbons illuminates the late career of this major Mannerist court artist Her use of new documents to reconstruct and redate the commission argues for a more contextual approach to

Giambologna in relation to the Genoese old nobility the Genoese Republic Catholic reform and Genoese Florentine relations within the Hapsburg Empire at the end of the Cinquecento George L Gorse Pomona and Scripps Colleges Mary Weitzel Gibbons s book successfully challenges the received wisdom that Giambologna as a sculptor was concerned only with the formal appearance of his figures in the round In this highly original analysis of his work in the Grimaldi Chapel in Genoa Gibbons takes on the largely neglected field of sixteenth century relief sculpture placing Giambologna s contribution properly in the larger discourse of narrative practices in both painting and sculpture Sheila Folliott George Mason University
