Potter,Stephen P. Hanna,Derek H. Alderman,Perry L. Carter,Candace Forbes Bright,David L. Butler,2022-03-15 Remembering Enslavement explores plantation museums as sites for contesting and reforming public interpretations of slavery in the American South Emerging out of a three year National Science Foundation grant 2014 17 the book turns a critical eye toward the growing inclusion of the formerly enslaved within these museums specifically examining advances but also continuing inequalities in how they narrate and memorialize the formerly enslaved Using assemblage theory as a framework Remembering Enslavement offers an innovative approach for studying heritage sites retelling and remapping the ways that slavery and the enslaved are included in southern plantation museums It examines multiple plantation sites across geographic areas considering the experiences of a diversity of actors tourists museum managers owners and tour guides interpreters This approach allows for an understanding of regional variations among plantation museums narratives and performances as well as more in depth study of the plantation tour experience and public interpretations The authors conclude the book with a set of questions designed to help professionals reassemble plantation museum narratives and landscapes to more justly position the formerly enslaved at their center
