Loyalist Lineages of Canada Dorrine Robertson Macnab, United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada. Toronto Branch, 1991 The New Loyalist Index Paul Joseph Bunnell, 1989 Given by Eugene Edge III Given in appreciation of Eugene Edge III Eugene Edge Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers The Church of England in Loyalist New Brunswick, 1783-1825 Ross N. Hebb, 2004 This study is an investigation of the arrival planting and expansion of the Church of England in Loyalist New Brunswick The obstacles encountered in setting up missions in the frontier both before and after the arrival of Bishop Charles Inglis are documented It is revealed that the origins qualifications zeal and adaptability of the colony's missionaries were key factors in the Church's foundation and success Legislated establishment although British policy proved half hearted and of little benefit in colonial New Brunswick While imperial attention to colonial religious policy was short lived the continued interest and aid of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel SPG was crucial inability to fully understand and appreciate the New Brunswick reality the SPG remained the only secure source of clerical income Given the frontier economy SPG funds were critical to the Church but it was in the end the exertions of Bishop Inglis and his small band of former New England missionaries who effected the establishment and long term viability of the Church of England in Loyalist New Brunswick
