H. Sharar, 1989      Music and Dance as Everyday South Asia Zoe C. Sherinian, Sarah L. Morelli, 2024-11-22 Music and Dance as Everyday South Asia offers an inclusive lens through which to study the music dance and allied arts of South Asia its diasporas and the people who produce and use these cultural expressions The authors in this collection ethnomusicologists dance scholars anthropologists and practitioners understand music and dance as everyday lived experience The everyday comprises practices of South Asians in multiple countries whose identities include numerous castes classes tribes genders sexualities religions nationalities more than twenty languages and other affiliations With the goal to de emphasize an approach that fetishizes analysis of classical form and its technical virtuosity this book instead contextualizes the understanding of aesthetic meaning within six themes place and community style genre and function intersectional identities of caste class and tribe gender and sexuality technology media and transmission and diaspora and globalization The thirty chapters in this collection demonstrate how the arts are meaningful expressions of human identities and relationships for ordinary people as well as virtuosic performers Each author ties their thesis to hands on participatory exercises that provide multiple entryways to understand and engage with cultural meaning In so doing they empower classroom dialogue that treats embodied experience as a vital mode of enquiry supplementing critical textual analysis to cultivate attentive responsive and ethical dispositions toward the music and dance practices of other humans and their life experiences

Satyajit Ray Andrew Robinson, 1989-01-01 Profiles the life of the Indian director and discusses the making of each of his films      The Scattered Court Richard David Williams, 2023-04-25 Presents a new history of how Hindustani court music responded to the political transitions of the nineteenth century How far did colonialism transform north Indian music In the period between the Mughal empire and the British Raj how did the political landscape bleed into aesthetics music dance and poetry Examining musical culture through a diverse and multilingual archive primarily using sources in Urdu Bengali and Hindi that have not been translated or critically examined before The Scattered Court challenges our assumptions about the period Richard David Williams presents a long history of interactions between northern India and Bengal with a core focus on the two courts of Wajid Ali Shah 1822 1887 the last ruler of the kingdom of Awadh He charts the movement of musicians and dancers between the two courts in Lucknow and Matiyaburj as well as the transregional circulation of intellectual traditions and musical genres and demonstrates the importance of the exile period for the rise of Calcutta as a celebrated center of Hindustani classical music Since Lucknow is associated with late Mughal or Nawabi society and Calcutta with colonial modernity examining the relationship between the two cities sheds light on forms of continuity and transition over the nineteenth century as artists and their patrons navigated political ruptures and social transformations The Scattered Court challenges the existing historiography of Hindustani music and Indian culture under colonialism by arguing that our focus on Anglophone sources and modernizing impulses has directed us away from the aesthetic subtleties historical continuities and emotional dimensions of nineteenth century music

Minority Pasts Razak Khan,2022-06-01 Minority Pasts explores the diversity of the histories and identities of Muslims in Rampur the last Muslim ruled princely state in colonial United Provinces and a city that is pejoratively labelled as the centre of Muslim votebank politics in contemporary Uttar Pradesh The book highlights the importance of locality and emotions in shaping Muslim identities politics and belonging in Rampur The book shows that we need to move beyond such homogeneous categories of nation and region in order to comprehend local dynamics that allow a better and closer understanding of the historical re negotiations of politics and identities by Muslims in South Asia

In the City of Gold and Silver Kenizé Mourad,2014-11-04 An enthralling historical novel based on the little known female warrior in nineteenth century India who led a revolt against the British Here is the long forgotten story of Begum Hazrat Mahal queen of Awadh and the soul of the Indian revolt against the British brought to vivid life by the author of Regards from the Dead Princess a major bestseller in her native France Begum was an orphan and a poetess who captured the attentions of King Wajid Ali Shah of Awadh and became his fourth wife As his wife she incited and led a popular uprising that would eventually prove to be the first step toward Indian independence Begum was the very incarnation of resistance As chief of the army and the government in Lucknow she fought battles on the field for two years she was a freedom fighter a misunderstood mother and an illicit lover She was a remarkable woman who risked everything only to face the greatest betrayal of all
