Lucky Child A Daughter Of Cambodia Reunites With The Sister She Left Behind:

Lucky Child Loung Ung, 2005-04-12 In this lyrical sequel to First They Killed My Father Ung describes her school years in Vermont as a Cambodian refugee and her sister Chou's struggle to survive in Cambodia Lucky Child Loung Ung, 2005

Lulu in the Sky Loung Ung, 2012-04-17 Concluding the trilogy that started with the bestselling memoir First They Killed My Father Loung Ung describes her college experience and her first steps into adulthood revealing her struggle to reconcile with her past while moving forward towards happiness After the violence of the Khmer Rouge and the difficult assimilation experience of a refugee Loung's daily struggle to keep darkness anger and depression at bay will finally find two unexpected allies the empowering call of activism and the redemptive power of love Lulu in the Sky is the story of Loung's journey to a Cambodian village to reconnect with her mother's spirit to a vocation that will literally allow her to heal the landscape of her birth and to the transformative influence of a supportive marriage to a loving man First They Killed My Father Loung Ung, 2010-10-12 A riveting memoir an important moving work that those who have suffered cannot afford to forget and those who have been spared cannot afford to ignore San Francisco Chronicle From a childhood survivor of the Cambodian genocide under the regime of Pol Pot this is a riveting narrative of war crimes and desperate actions the unnerving strength of a small girl and her family and their triumph of spirit One of seven children of a high ranking government official Loung Ung lived a privileged life in the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh until the age of five Then in April 1975 Pol Pot's Khmer Rouge army stormed into the city forcing Ung's family to flee and eventually to disperse Loung was trained as a child soldier in a work camp for orphans her siblings were sent to labor camps and those who survived the horrors would not be reunited until the Khmer Rouge was destroyed Harrowing yet hopeful Loung's powerful story is an unforgettable account of a family shaken and shattered yet miraculously sustained by courage and love in the face of unspeakable brutality Lived Refuge Vinh Nguyen, 2023-11-14 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In a world increasingly shaped by displacement and migration refuge is both a coveted right and an elusive promise for millions While conventionally understood as legal protection it also transcends judicial definitions In Lived Refuge Vinh Nguyen reconceptualizes refuge as an ongoing affective experience and lived relation rather than a fixed category with legitimacy derived from the state Focusing on Southeast Asian diasporas in the wake of the Vietnam War Nguyen examines three affective experiences gratitude resentment and resilience to reveal the actively lived dimensions of refuge Through multifaceted analyses of literary and cultural productions Nguyen argues that the meaning of refuge emerges from how displaced people negotiate the kinds of safety and protection that are offered to and withheld from them In so doing he lays the framework for an original and compelling understanding of contemporary refugee subjectivity Transnationalism and the Asian American Heroine Lan Dong, 2014-01-10 This collection examines transnational Asian American women characters in various fictional narratives It analyzes how certain heroines who are culturally rooted in Asian regions have been transformed and re imagined in America playing significant roles in Asian American literary studies as well as community life The interdisciplinary essays display refreshing perspectives in Asian American literary studies and transnational feminism from four continents A Socially Just Classroom:

Transdisciplinary Approaches to Teaching Writing Across the Humanities Kristin Coffey, Vuslat Katsanis, 2022-08-16

This edited collection provides a range of transdisciplinary approaches to the teaching of writing across the Humanities through the lens of inclusion and equity in higher education In three parts From Disciplinary Practice to Transdisciplinary Application The Collective We Transparent Pedagogy in Praxis Power in Presence From Chalkboard to Pavement the chapters focus on teaching triumphs and challenges specific learning objectives and best practices theories and their applications and concrete examples of campus action within specific institutional or socio historical contexts In whole the book represents what a socially just classroom looks like from first year university writing classes to advanced graduate studies and the impact of learning beyond the university Building on the scholarship of equity in higher education the book forefronts transdisciplinary pedagogies with chapters representing language and literature creative writing cultural and ethnic studies women and gender studies and media studies While we understand social justice as a multifaceted and ever expanding effort we affirm the essential role of classroom instructors as the foundational actors in cultivating and sustaining inclusion and equity We also acknowledge the current challenges of teaching brought on by the COVID 19 pandemic which intensifies previously existing issues surrounding housing employment healthcare and the legal residency status of many students By fostering a conversation around writing pedagogy in a comparative and transdisciplinary context we encourage educators to translate the resources available in their fields in a collective effort to close the equity gaps At the same time we intend for this book to provide a context where younger faculty and diverse students can redefine the college classroom while empowering each other within their chosen institutions Relative Histories Rocio G. Davis, 2022-04-30

Relative Histories focuses on the Asian American memoir that specifically recounts the story of at least three generations of the same family This form of auto biography concentrates as much on other members of one's family as on oneself generally collapses the boundaries conventionally established between biography and autobiography and in many cases as Rocio G Davis proposes for the auto biographies of ethnic writers crosses the frontier into history promoting collective memory Davis centers on how Asian American family memoirs expand the limits and function of life writing by reclaiming history and promoting community cohesion She argues that identity is shaped by not only the stories we have been told but also the stories we tell making these narratives important examples of the ways we remember our family's past and tell our community's story In the context of auto biographical writing or filmmaking that explores specific ethnic experiences of diaspora assimilation and integration this work considers two important aspects These texts re imagine the past by creating a work that exists both in history and as a historical document making the creative process a form of re enactment of the past itself Each chapter centers on a thematic concern germane to the Asian American experience the narrative of twentieth century Asian wars and revolutions which has become the subtext of a significant number of Asian American family memoirs Pang Mei Natasha Chang's Bound Feet and Western Dress May lee and Winberg Chai's The Girl from Purple Mountain K Connie Kang's Home Was The Land of Morning Calm Doung Van Mai Elliott's The Sacred Willow family experiences of travel and displacement within Asia in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries which unveil a history of multiple diasporas that are often elided after families immigrate to the United States Helie Lee's Still Life With Rice Jael Silliman's Jewish Portraits Indian Frames Mira Kamdar's Motiba's Tattoos and the development of Chinatowns as family spaces Maxine Hong Kingston's China Men Lisa See's On Gold Mountain Bruce Edward Hall's Tea that Burns The final chapter analyzes the discursive possibilities of the filmed family memoir family portrait documentary examining Lise Yasui's A Family Gathering Ruth Ozeki Lounsbury's Halving the Bones and Ann Marie Fleming's The Magical Life of Long Tack Sam Davis concludes the work with a metaliterary engagement with the history of her own Asian diasporic family as she demonstrates the profound interconnection between forms of life writing
