 With a kid on the way Boyd needed the job bad But the idea of going underground at the Hobart Mine down into the dark labyrinth of tunnels to get at the raw ore left him with a brooding sense of unease Maybe it was the fact that his father had died down in the mines or maybe it was something much worse Digging a new drift down in Level 8 the lowest level of the mine an immense shaft opens up Boyd and a few others volunteer to explore it Some 400 feet down they find a passage that leads to an immense cavern from prehistory A petrified world A prehistoric graveyard Then a cave in traps them down there In the darkness and dank shadows of a fossilized world they realize they are not alone Something has woken in the stone Something ancient and terrible and coldly intelligent And it is lonely In the Flesh Tim Curran,2018-01-03 Available for their self positioned and ascribed learnersness nonnative speakerness and non Japaneseness both inside and outside classroom contexts greatly impact the targeted negotiations It argues that these ascribed social identities encourage participants to adopt correct gendered Japanese however what exactly this correctness means differs for each JAL participant depending on their other reflective and perceived social identities such as gender age class race and English native speakerness This book draws on the conclusions on the implications of discourses and practices concerning native speaker status gender and race in Japanese language education While the initial focus is on gendered Japanese and gender identity this book subsequently expands that the participants negotiation of gendered Japanese and gender identity is complicatedly intertwined with negotiations of other social identities such as native speaker status race and age with native speaker status saliently affecting the way they position themselves and are positioned by their interlocutors This book analyses the participants language resources spoken and or written Japanese interactions and one on one and focus group interviews and presents easily understood findings for readers who are interested in SLA Japanese language and or identity studies This is the first book to holistically examine Australia based tertiary students Japanese language learning experience and Japanese interactions with regards to gendered language identities and discursive power relations in a global and multilingual world
