Making A Difference An Anthology Of Ethnic Canadian Writing:

Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography Christl Verduyn, 2008-08-14 Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography explores some of the latest developments in the literary and cultural practices of Canadians of Asian heritage While earlier work by ethnic multicultural or minority writers in Canada was often concerned with immigration the moment of arrival issues of assimilation and conflicts between generations literary and cultural production in the new millennium no longer focuses solely on the conflict between the Old World and the New or the clashes between culture of origin and adopted culture No longer are minority authors identifying simply with their ethnic or racial cultural background in opposition to dominant culture The essays in this collection explore ways in which Asian Canadian authors such as Larissa Lai Shani Mootoo Fred Wah Hiromi Goto Suniti Namjoshi and Ying Chen and artists such as Ken Lum Paul Wong and Laiwan have gone beyond what Fran oise Lionnet calls autoethnography or ethnographic autobiography They demonstrate the ways representations of race and ethnicity particularly in works by Asian Canadians in the last decade have changed have become more playful untraditional aesthetically and ideologically transgressive and exciting

Making a Difference Smaro Kamboureli, 1996 This first comprehensive anthology of ethnic and aboriginal writing in Canada offers a wide range of writing styles in fiction and poetry with a focus on Native and immigrant experiences ethnic ancestry and the complex spectrum of cultural differences It begins with the first ethnic authors who wrote ethnic literature in English and includes established and new voices that have made a difference to our understanding of Canadian identity

Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945, 2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon Sandra R G Almeida Maria Zilda F Cury Sarah De Mul Sneja Gunew Dave Gunning Kristina Iwata Weickgenannt Martina Kamm Liesbeth Minnaard Maria Oikonomou Wenche Ommundsen Marie Orton Laura Reeck Daniel Rothenb hler Cathy J Schlund Vials Wiebke Sievers Bettina Spoerri Christl Verduyn Sandra Vlasta

Morra, 2022-09-07 Collection Thinking is a volume of essays that thinks across and beyond critical frameworks from library archival and museum studies to understand the meaning of collection as an entity and as an act It offers new models for understanding how collections have been imagined and defined assembled created and used as cultural phenomena Featuring over 70 illustrations and 21 original chapters that explore cases from a wide range of fields including library and archival studies literary studies art history media studies sound studies folklore studies game studies and education Collection Thinking builds on the important scholarly works produced on the topic of the archive over the past two decades and contributes to ongoing debates on the historical status of memory institutions The volume illustrates how the concept of collection bridges these institutional and structural categories and generates discussions of cultural activities involving artifactual arrangement preservation curation and circulation in both the private and the public spheres Edited and introduced collaboratively by three senior scholars with expertise in the fields of literature art history archives and museums Collection Thinking is designed to stimulate interdisciplinary reflection and conversation This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners interested in how we organize materials for research across disciplines of the humanities and social sciences With case studies that range from collecting Barbie dolls to medieval embroideries and with contributions from practitioners on record collecting the creation of sub culture archives and collection as artistic practice this volume will appeal to anyone who has ever wondered about why and how collections are made

have shaped Anglophone and Francophone Canadian literatures in the last decades of the twentieth century Focusing on the pursuit of an ever elusive Canadianness in literary texts it documents the astonishing range of Canadian diasporic identities that have recently emerged in the Canadian literary landscape The contributors to this volume boldly transgress the widely held critical assumptions of postcolonialism in their examination of the literary representations of contemporary Canada s many Others Ce volume rassemble nombre d analyses innovatrices des reconfigurations qui ont caract ris les litt ratures canadiennes anglophones et francophones durant les derni res d cennies du vingti me si cle Tout en se concentrant sur la qu te de l insaisissable Canadianit en litt rature l ouvrage d montre l tonnante diversit des identit s diasporiques qui ont r cemment merg dans le paysage litt raire canadien Les contributeurs de ce volume transgressent audacieusement les certitudes g n ralement acquises du postcolonialisme afin de mieux d crire les repr sentations litt raires des nombreux Autres du Canada actuel The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller,2004-02-05 This book offers a comprehensive and lively introduction to major writers genres and topics in Canadian literature Addressing traditional assumptions and current issues contributors pay attention to the social political and economic developments that have informed literary events Broad surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing in a country historically defined by its regions Also discussed are genres that have a special place in Canadian literature such as nature writing exploration and travel writing and short fiction Although the emphasis is on literature in English a substantial chapter on francophone writing is included Inter- and Transcultural Learning in the Context of Canadian Young Adult Fiction Grit Alter,2015

Within the past few years transcultural learning has become one of the key terms in TEFL theory Central concerns in current research include differentiating between inter and transcultural learning navigating processes of understanding otherness and assessing cultural competences Using these aspects this study investigates texts recommended for cultural learning and key components of implementing literature in ELT The results call for a more holistic perception of alterity and argue in favour of transcultural literature as a basis for transcultural learning All of this dissertation is in English Subjects Literary Criticism Education Series Fremdsprachendidaktik in globaler Perspektive Vol 5 Keepers of the Code Robert

Lecker,2013-02-07 Keepers of the Code explores the complex network of associations and negotiations that influenced the development of literary anthologies in English Canada from 1837 to the present Lecker shows that these anthologies are deeply conflicted narratives that embody the tensions and anxieties felt by their editors when faced with the challenge of constructing or rejecting national ideals He argues that these are intensely self conscious works with their own literary mechanisms and architecture In reading the history of these anthologies he witnesses a complex narrative of nation a compelling story about the values and interests informing English Canadian literary history Cultural Grammars of

Nation, Diaspora, and Indigeneity in Canada Christine Kim,Sophie McCall,Melina Baum Singer,2012-05-09 Cultural

Grammars of Nation Diaspora and Indigeneity in Canada considers how the terms of critical debate in literary and cultural studies in Canada have shifted with respect to race nation and difference In asking how Indigenous and diasporic interventions have remapped these debates the contributors argue that a new cultural grammar is at work and attempt to sketch out some of the ways it operates The essays reference pivotal moments in Canadian literary and cultural history and speak to ongoing debates about Canadian nationalism postcolonialism migrancy and transnationalism Topics covered include the Asian race riots in Vancouver in 1907 the cultural memory of internment and dispersal of Japanese Canadians in the 1940s the politics of migrant labour and the domestic labour scheme in the 1960s and the trial of Robert Pickton in Vancouver in 2007 The contributors are particularly interested in how diaspora and indigeneity continue to contribute to this critical reconfiguration and in how conversations about diaspora and indigeneity in the Canadian context have themselves been transformed Cultural Grammars is an attempt to address both the interconnections and the schisms between these multiply fractured critical terms as well as the larger conceptual shifts that have occurred in response to national and postnational arguments

Land Deep in Time Weronika Suchacka, Hartmut Lutz, 2023-10-09 This volume brings together a group of most highly acclaimed Canadian writers and distinguished international experts on Canadian literature to discuss what potential Janice Kulyk Keefer's concept of historiographic ethnofiction has for ethnic writing in Canada The collection builds upon Kulyk Keefer's idea but also moves beyond it by discussing such realms of the concept as its ethics and aesthetics multiple and multilayered sites generic intersections and diasporic contexts Thus focusing on Canadian historiographic ethnofiction Land Deep in Time is the first study to define and explore a type of writing which maintains a marked presence in Canadian literature but has not yet been recognized as a separately identifiable genre

Handbook of Transatlantic North American Studies Julia Straub, 2016-05-10 Transatlantic literary studies have provided important new perspectives on North American British and Irish literature They have led to a revision of literary history and the idea of a national literature They have changed the perception of the Anglo American literary market and its many processes of transatlantic production distribution reception and criticism Rather than dwelling on comparisons or engaging with the notion of influence transatlantic literary studies seek to understand North American British and Irish literature as linked with each other by virtue of multi layered historical and cultural ties and pay special attention to the many refractions and mutual interferences that have characterized these traditions since colonial times This handbook brings together articles that summarize some of the crucial transatlantic concepts debates and topics The contributions contained in this volume examine periods in literary and cultural history literary movements individual authors as well as genres from a transatlantic perspective combining theoretical insight with textual analysis

Eastern Encounters: Canadian Women's Writing about the East, 1867-1929 Shoshannah Ganz □, 2017-04-17 Eastern Encounters releases early Canadian women writers from a simple focus on autobiography and racial politics and interrogates their specific and sophisticated Asian influences With a compelling reconstruction of historical context Ganz has created perhaps the first book in a much needed series that will revisit Canadian nationalism through the important cultural exchanges she examines Though shaped with an Asian readership in mind Eastern Encounters is an important work for all who wish to challenge the notion that Judeo Christian traditions almost exclusively shaped early Canadian discourse
