Johnson,2019-08-05 Drawing on almost fifty years of research and first hand experience Elizabeth Lominska Johnson and Graham E Johnson have produced a masterpiece of ethnography a fine grained study of the transformation of a rural district into a chaotic industrial and now post industrial city Their work has implications far beyond its specific location scholars of history anthropology and sociology urban planning ethnomusicology women s studies political science ethnic relations and China studies in general will all find it meaningful Tsuen Wan was incorporated into colonial Hong Kong in 1898 The original inhabitants were Hakka who were guaranteed land rights which were central to later developments After the Japanese war the town was overwhelmed by vast numbers of immigrants fleeing civil war and revolution seeking employment in rapidly developing industries The newcomers were welcomed as tenants but in the absence of firm planning guidelines their number far exceeded the town s capacity to house and accommodate them The original inhabitants were firmly rooted in villages and elaborate kinship organizations the immigrants similarly relied on voluntary associations to help them face the many challenges that change brought into their lives Over time the government became more interventionist and developed Tsuen Wan as the first planned new town in Hong Kong s New Territories In recent years the culture of the original inhabitants has been diluted and differences among immigrants have diminished as all have assumed a general Hong Kong identity I have no doubt that this is an important book It covers a large number of topics that will intrigue sociologists anthropologists political scientists and historians who work on developing societies The book can be easily mined for data and comparative ethnography on a wide range of subjects from family organization to styles of leadership For scholars focusing on Chinese society this is a must read James Watson Harvard University The authors show us the dynamic interactions between tradition and modernity in Tsuen Wan s everyday life during the time when the New Town was undergoing rapid industrialization They give us a comprehensive account of the social development of the villages in the area taking us on a historical tour filled with surprises and excitement Sidney Cheung The Chinese University of Hong Kong Mid-Century Modern – Visionary Furniture Design from Vienna Caroline Wohlgemuth,2021-12-31 Visionary furniture design from Vienna In 1938 Vienna lost its best and most creative minds This rupture was manifested in all of the arts and sciences and its mark is felt to this day not least in the field of furniture design With inexhaustible creativity the Jewish furniture designers who were forced to flee Vienna continued to work while in exile They taught at the best universities and spread their ideas and vision throughout the entire world Their creations became classics of twentieth century furniture design the epitome of mid century modern style This book honors the memory of the exiled designers with a thorough overview of their work It details their life stories and their visionary designs which remain as relevant and contemporary as ever and brings to light new aspects of the history of Viennese furniture design A new history of Viennese furniture design with 27 detailed biographies Numerous previously unpublished photographs and sketches Including works by Friedl Dicker Brandeis Martin Eisler Josef Frank Friedrich Kiesler Richard Neutra Bruno Pollak Margarete Sch tte Lihotzky Franz Singer Ernst Schwadron among others Labour in Vietnam Anita Chan,2003-08-01 Two decades after Vietnam introduced a programme of economic renovation commonly known in Doi Moi the country today allows market competition in industry and a new working class has been created This is the first book to focus on the role and conditions of workers in the new economic regime The authors of the book trace Vietnam s labour history explore the impact of the socialist legacy and examine the reasons for the large number of recent strikes The book provides insights into the workforce of one of Asia s most rapidly developing industrial economies The Workshop ,1874 The Publishers Weekly ,1914 Papers on Preventive, Correctional and Reformatory Institutions and Agencies in Different Countries Henry Barnard,1857 Tales from the Development Frontier Hinh T.
