Making Home Sharon Astyk, 2012-08-28 A guide to living an austere yet even more fulfilling life during tough economic times explains how to improve family relations save for future generations and save money on heating and cooling refrigeration laundry water cooking cleaning and more Original Making Home Work Jane E. Simonsen, 2006 During the westward expansion of America white middle class ideals of home and domestic work were used to measure differences between white and Native American women Yet the vision of America as home was more than a metaphor for women's stake in the p Making Home(s) in Displacement Luce Beeckmans, Alessandra Gola, Ashika Singh, Hilde Heynen, 2022-01-17 Making Home s in Displacement critically rethinks the relationship between home and displacement from a spatial material and architectural perspective Recent scholarship in the social sciences has investigated how migrants and refugees create and reproduce home under new conditions thereby unpacking the seemingly contradictory positions of making a home and overcoming its loss Yet making home s in displacement is also a spatial practice one which intrinsically relates to the fabrication of the built environment worldwide Conceptually the book is divided along four spatial sites referred to as camp shelter city and house which are approached with a multitude of perspectives ranging from urban planning and architecture to anthropology geography philosophy gender studies and urban history all with a common focus on space and spatiality By articulating everyday homemaking experiences of migrants and refugees as spatial practices in a variety of geopolitical and historical contexts this edited volume adds a novel perspective to the existing interdisciplinary scholarship at the intersection of home and displacement It equally intends to broaden the canon of architectural histories and theories by including migrants and refugees spatial agencies and place making practices to its annals By highlighting the political in the spatial and vice versa this volume sets out to decentralise and decolonise current definitions of home and displacement striving for a more pluralistic outlook on the idea of home Making Home in Diasporic Communities Diane Sabenacio Nititham, 2016-11-03 Making Home in Diasporic Communities demonstrates the global scope of the Filipino diaspora engaging wider scholarship on globalisation and the ways in which the dynamics of nation state institutions labour migration and social relationships intersect for transnational communities Based on original ethnographic work conducted in Ireland and the Philippines the book examines how Filipina diasporans socially and symbolically create a sense of home On one hand Filipinas can be seen as mobile as they have crossed geographical borders and are physically located in the destination country Yet on the other hand they are constrained by immigration policies linguistic and cultural barriers and other social and cultural institutions Through modalities of language rituals and religion and food the author examines the ways in which Filipinas orient their perceptions expectations practices and social spaces to the homeland thus providing insight into larger questions of inclusion and exclusion for diasporic communities By focusing on a range of Filipina experiences including that of nurses international students religious workers and personal assistants Making Home in Diasporic Communities explores the intersectionality of gender race class and belonging As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and anthropology as well as those with interests in gender identity migration ethnic studies and the construction of home Making Home in the Suburb Maram Shaweesh,2024-11-12 This book investigates everyday life within Lebanese Australian homes documenting how these homes integrate Lebanese Australian culture into suburban Australian life It explores how the homemaking practices of Lebanese Australian families both influence and are influenced by the context of suburban housing in Australia Drawing from in depth interviews household tours photographic documentation mental mapping and historical imagery data collection the book illuminates homemaking practices that have evolved from creating a home away from home to practices influenced by a unique Lebanese Australian lifestyle rooted in the perception of Australia as their home Progress of the Making Home Affordable Program United States.
