Snyder, 2011-01-20 The majority of scholarly treatments for film adaptation are put forth by experts on film and film analysis thus with the focus being on film Analyzing Literature to Film Adaptations looks at film adaptation from a fresh perspective that of writer or creator of literary fiction In her book Snyder explores both literature and film as separate entities detailing the analytical process of interpreting novels and short stories as well as films She then introduces a means to analyzing literature to film adaptations drawing from the concept of intertextual comparison Snyder writes not only from the perspective of a fiction writer but also as an instructor of writing literature and film adaptation She employs the use of specific film adaptations Frankenstein Children of Men Away from Her to show the analytical process put into practice Her approach to film adaptation is designed for students just beginning their academic journey but also for those students well on their way The book also is written for high school and college instructors who teach film adaptations in the classroom Theology and the Films of Christopher Nolan Joel Mayward, 2025-10-30 This work of theological film criticism provides an analysis of filmmaker Christopher Nolan's entire filmography from Following 1998 to Oppenheimer 2023 Though his films are noticeably lacking in representations of religion or references to God Nolan's postsecular cinema is nevertheless worthy of our theological consideration as it contains valuable theological and philosophical insights Indeed this is the central claim of Theology and the Films of Christopher Nolan Christopher Nolan's films can and should be considered works of cinematic philosophical theology they are doing theology and philosophy through the medium of film as they explore what it means to be human in relation to the transcendent This book identifies the deep parallels and resonances between Nolan s films and the works of philosopher Paul Ricoeur and theologian St Augustine Like Nolan s cinema Theology and the Films of Christopher Nolan is both intellectually stimulating and highly accessible satisfying the interests of both scholars and popular audiences alike

The Philosophy of Neo-Noir Mark T. Conard, 2007-01-05 A collection of essays exploring the philosophical elements present in Neo Noir films Film noir is a classic genre characterized by visual elements such as tilted camera angles skewed scene compositions and an interplay between darkness and light Common motifs include crime and punishment the upheaval of traditional moral values and a pessimistic stance on the meaning of life and on the place of humankind in the universe Spanning the 1940s and 1950s the classic film noir era saw the release of many of Hollywood s best loved studies of shady characters and shadowy underworlds including Double Indemnity The Big Sleep Touch of Evil and The Maltese Falcon Neo noir is a somewhat loosely defined genre of films produced after the classic noir era that display the visual or thematic hallmarks of the noir sensibility The essays collected in The Philosophy of Neo Noir explore the philosophical implications of neo noir touchstones such as Blade Runner Chinatown Reservoir Dogs Memento and the films of the Coen brothers Through the lens of philosophy Mark T Conard and the contributors examine previously obscure layers of meaning in these challenging films The contributors also consider these neo noir films as a means of addressing philosophical questions about guilt redemption the essence of human nature and problems of knowledge memory and identity In the neo noir universe the lines between right and wrong and good and evil are blurred and the detective and the criminal frequently mirror each other s most debilitating personality traits The neo noir detective more antihero than hero is frequently a morally compromised and spiritually shaken individual whose pursuit of a criminal masks the search for lost or unattainable aspects of the self Conard argues that the films discussed in The Philosophy of Neo Noir convey ambiguity disillusionment and disorientation more effectively than even the most iconic films of the classic noir era Able to self consciously draw upon noir conventions and simultaneously subvert them neo noir directors push beyond the earlier genre s limitations and open new paths of cinematic and philosophical exploration Praise for The Philosophy of Neo Noir Conard can feel confident that these terrific essays will be of interest to film enthusiasts particularly fans of Neo Noir Additionally for those who come to this volume with some background in philosophy not only will they be pleased to find fellow philosophers offering accessible introductions to philosophical thinkers and ideas but they are sure to increase their understanding of noir Neo Noir and many familiar film titles as well as more deeply appreciate the ways in which popular film and television offer wide and varied avenues to doing good philosophy Kimberly A Blessing co editor of Movies and the Meaning of Life Taking up such latter day classics as Chinatown Blade Runner and Memento this volume explores how contemporary filmmakers have taken up the challenge of classic film noir and broadened the genre In Christopher Nolan's films ironically both embrace the tradition of surrealist and Avant Garde filmmaking while simultaneously providing at least tacit support for the Anglo American liberal world order. For Nolan, this world order which relies on global capitalism, technocratic supremacy and ultimate control of world cultural production is a much greater alternative to either left or right wing challenges to this liberalism. In Nolan's films, this liberalism must occasionally use violence and violate some of its core principals of privacy and freedom to maintain its dominance. Nonetheless, Anglo American liberalism in Nolan's vision provides a world that is freer, more humane and more prosperous than other anarchic Marxist or fascist alternatives. Finally and perhaps most importantly for Nolan, the security, wealth and freedom of this liberal world order enables the world of art and film to blossom and the opportunity for Christopher Nolan to create post-ironic dream worlds or in the words of Jean Baudrillard, a hyperreality.

Making Sense of Mind-Game Films Simin Nina Littschwager, 2019-06-27

Mind game films and other complex narratives have been a prominent phenomenon of the cinematic landscape during the period 1990-2010 when films like The Sixth Sense, Memento, Fight Club and Source Code became critical and commercial successes, often acquiring a cult status with audiences. With their multiple story lines, unreliable narrators, ambiguous twist endings and paradoxical worlds, these films challenge traditional ways of narrative comprehension and in many cases require and reward multiple viewings. But how can we make sense of films that don't always make sense the way we are used to? While most scholarship has treated these complex films as narrative puzzles that audiences solve with their cognitive skills, Making Sense of Mind Game Films offers a fresh perspective by suggesting that they appeal to the body and the senses in equal measures. Mind game films tell stories about crises between body, mind and world and about embodied forms of knowing and subjective ways of being in the world. Through compelling in-depth case studies of popular mind game films, the book explores how these complex narratives take their embodied spectators with them into such crises. The puzzling effect generated by these films stems from a conflict between what we think and what we experience, between what we know and what we feel to be true and between what we see and what we sense.

Slicing Spaces: Performance of Architecture in Cinema Gul Kacmaz Erk, Rebecca-Jane McConnell, 2023-05-26

As suggested in the title Slicing Spaces: Performance of Architecture in Cinema, this project slices through the multifaceted layers of film space. The text investigates how architecture performs as an altruist, proving that envired space is not merely a backdrop in film scenes but an active performing character. The performance of architecture varies depending on what the filmmakers wish the viewer to feel, whether it is fear, compassion or joy. Considerations take an interdisciplinary approach, not solely observing film and architecture but also studying the likes of urbanism, politics, philosophy, history, psychology, art and design. The substantial spectrum of opinions from contributing authors allows the reader to absorb the diverse relationships of architecture in cinema, inviting the reader to form their own opinions on the topic and inspiring a new way of thinking. Slicing Spaces explores the interconnected relationship between architecture and film via distinct approaches to spaces of the city.

confinement actuality the psyche and the imagination Diverse views on cinematic architecture are probed such as the psychological ramifications of film architecture the portrayals of the city as a character and the potentials of exploring fantastic places in film Overall the book focuses on the authoritative contribution of architecture to the realm of filmmaking It uncovers a path to look at lived spaces of architectural design from an alternative perspective be it interiors buildings or cities Utilising the architectural ingenuity of drawings and graphics the collection takes the reader on a visual journey as well as one through narratives
