Making A Virtue Of Necessity Studies In African Past 1 1:

The Zambesian Past Eric Stokes, 1966 Nigerian English David Jowitt, 2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton's Dialects of English series Morality, Hope and Grief Hansjörg Dilger, Ute Luig, 2010-05-01 The HIV AIDS epidemic in sub Saharan Africa has been addressed and perceived predominantly through the broad perspectives of social and economic theories as well as public health and development discourses This volume however focuses on the micro politics of illness treatment and death in order to offer innovative insights into the complex processes that shape individual and community responses to AIDS The contributions describe the dilemmas that families communities and health professionals face and shed new light on the transformation of social and moral orders in African societies which have been increasingly marginalised in the context of global modernity ICT, Globalisation and the Study of Languages and Linguistics in Africa Ndimele, Ozo-mekuri, 2016-12-14 This book contains papers which focus on the twin subjects of globalisation and information communication technologies ICTs They express either fear or optimism regarding their effects on the survival of indigenous cultures languages and literature This book is a must read for anyone who is interested to learn more about the role of globalisation in the erosion of cultural as well as linguistic diversity and the impact of ICTs in the development of indigenous languages in Africa Human Rights from a Comparative and International Law Perspective Joan Church, Christian Schulze, Hennie Strydom, 2007 In terms of the South African Constitution of 1996 there is a general need for an introduction to comparative law and one that covers what is technically known as applied comparative law more particularly applied comparative law that involves a study of the bills of rights in other countries Evidence, Ethos and Experiment P. Wenzel Geissler, Catherine Molyneux, 2017-05 Medical research has been central to biomedicine in Africa for over a century and Africa along with other tropical areas has been crucial to the development of medical science At present study populations in Africa participate in an increasing number of medical research projects and clinical trials run by both public institutions and private companies Global debates about the politics and ethics of this research are growing and local concerns are prompting calls for social studies of the rural communities produced by this scientific work Drawing on rich ethnographic and historiographic material this volume represents the emergent field of anthropological inquiry that links Africanist ethnography to recent concerns with science the state and the culture of late capitalism in Africa

European Atrocity, African Catastrophe Sir Martin Ewans,Martin Ewans,2017-07-28 There is a broad consensus among those who are concerned with Africa that the plight of the continent is approaching the catastrophic Partly the roots of the problem are historical stemming from the exploitation and colonisation of the continent

by European powers An appreciation of the history of the relationship between Europe and Africa a major episode of which this book examines is indispensable to an understanding of the continent's present predicament In the late 19th and early 20th centuries King Leopold II of the Belgians established a colony in Africa which as the Congo Free State became a byword for unremitting exploitation and widespread atrocities This book describes the creation the development and the collapse both of this regime and of the Belgian colony that replaced it Conclusions are drawn about the nature of European colonialism in Africa and the consequences for Europe itself

Manufacturing African Studies and Crises Tiyaambe Zeleza, Paul Tiyaambe Zeleza, 1997 Awarded Special Commendation in the Noma Award for Publishing in Africa 1998 The intellectual liberation of the study of Africa is the battle cry of this forceful book The author is one of Africa's younger scholars in the forefront of research and thinking about the role of African scholars and the ownership and state of African Studies and winner of The Noma Award for Publishing in Africa 1994 He describes this book as an interrogation of African Studies its formulations and fetishes theories and trends possibilities and pitfalls He argues that as a discursive formation African Studies is immersed in the contexts and configurations of the western epistemological order and the crisis in African Studies in North America and Britain reflects changing cultural policies as a result of the shifting ethnic and gender composition of classrooms transformations in the global positions of these countries and the crisis of liberal values The study has been highly recommended by such distinguished African scholars as Professors Mahmood Mamdani Ali Mazrui V Y Mudimbe and Adebayo Olikosh

Order at the Bazaar Regine A. Spector, 2017-08-15 Order at the Bazaar delves into the role of bazaars in the political economy and development of Central Asia Bazaars are the economic bedrock for many throughout the region they are the entrepreneurial hubs of Central Asia However they are often regarded as mafia governed environments that are largely populated by the dispossessed By immersing herself in the bazaars of Kyrgyzstan Regine A Spector learned that some are rather best characterized as islands of order in a chaotic national context Spector draws on interviews archival sources and participant observation to show how traders landowners and municipal officials create order in the absence of a coherent government apparatus and bureaucratic state Merchants have adapted Soviet institutions including trade unions and pre Soviet practices such as using village elders as the arbiters of disputes to the urban bazaar by building and asserting their own authority Spector's findings have relevance beyond the bazaars and borders of one small country they teach us how economic development operates when the rule of law is weak

Artificial Intelligence Robert H. Chen, Chelsea Chen, 2024-09-25 Artificial Intelligence An Introduction to Big Ideas and their Development Second Edition guides readers through the history and development of artificial intelligence AI from its early mathematical beginnings through to the exciting possibilities of its potential future applications To make this journey as accessible as possible the authors build their narrative around accounts of some of the more popular and well known demonstrations of artificial intelligence including Deep Blue AlphaGo and even Texas Hold'em followed by their historical background so that AI can be seen as a natural development of the mathematics and computer science of AI As the book proceeds more technical descriptions are presented at a pace that should be suitable for all levels of readers gradually building a broad and reasonably deep understanding and appreciation for the basic mathematics physics and computer science that is rapidly developing artificial intelligence as it is today Features Only mathematical prerequisite is an elementary knowledge of calculus Accessible to anyone with an interest in AI and its mathematics and computer science Suitable as a supplementary reading for a course in AI or the History of Mathematics and Computer Science in regard to artificial intelligence New to the Second Edition Fully revised and corrected throughout to bring the material up to date Greater technical detail and exploration of basic mathematical concepts while retaining the simplicity of explanation of the first edition Entirely new chapters on large language models LLMs ChatGPT and quantum computing Directory of European Political Scientists European Consortium for Political Research. Central Services,1985 No detailed description available for Directory of European political scientists The Untold War: Inside the Hearts, Minds, and Souls of Our Soldiers Nancy Sherman,2011-08-23 This unique analysis of the moral weight of warfare today filters complex problems through the lenses of philosophy and psychology Giving a voice to the Oppressed? Agnès Arp,Annette Leo,Franka Maubach,2019-12-16 Due to its internationality and interdisciplinarity the International Oral History Association IOHA which was founded in the late 1970 s is one of a kind in the academic landscape Driven by the desire to democratize historical scholarship its members wanted to give a voice to groups such as women workers migrants or victims of political dictatorships who had not been heard up to that point The contributions deal with the academic approaches and the political convictions of the previous generation Ibss: Political Science: 1997 British Library of Political and Economic Science,1999-01-14 Provides an unrivalled overview of intellectual development in political science Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,1997 The Indian Review G.A.
