Social Europe Joe Bailey, 2014-06-03 Since the first edition of Social Europe was published in 1992 profound social changes have occurred throughout Europe as a result of conflicting pressures on the one hand to become more integrated and on the other to protect national interests and identity This second edition of Social Europe has been fully revised to provide a comprehensive and focused account of basic social issues and structures which provide the context for these changes Each chapter covers a key topic such as education crime gender health and religion and provides valuable comparisons between the key nation states of Western Europe

Managerial Capitalism Gérard Duménil, Dominique Lévy, 2018-03-20 The debate around growing inequality is raging amongst economists and Marxists are finding new ways to map out the modern economy Managerial Capitalism introduces a new way of understanding the changing structure of our economy through the emergence and behaviour of a new class managers In the post war years as social democracy reigned managers tended to form compromises with workers However under neoliberalism allegiances have shifted Today a new alliance is forming between managers and capitalist owners changing the nature of the hierarchy of power under capitalism Additionally the authors argue this is happening much faster and universally than was previously thought By applying Marx's basic concepts to the reality of the system today through the use of extensive data sets as well as firmly rooting the argument in its historical context Managerial Capitalism updates Marxism for the twenty first century through showing how the modes of production today are shaped by a new class that must be understood if it is to be challenged

Fertility, Class and Gender in Britain, 1860-1940 Simon Szreter, 2002-07-25 This book offers an original interpretation of the history of falling fertilities in Britain between 1860 and 1940 It integrates the approaches of the social sciences and of demographic feminist and labour history with intellectual social and political history It exposes the conceptual and statistical inadequacies of the orthodox picture of a national unitary class differential fertility decline and presents an entirely new analysis of the famous 1911 fertility census of England and Wales Surprising and important findings emerge concerning the principal methods of birth control births were spaced from early on in marriage and sexual abstinence by married couples was a far more significant practice than previously imagined The author presents a new general approach to the study of fertility change raising central issues concerning the relationship between history and social science The Spirit of Luc Boltanski Simon Susen, Bryan S. Turner, 2014-11-01 What is the relevance of Luc Boltanski's pragmatic sociology of critique to central issues in contemporary social and political analysis In seeking to respond to this question this book contains critical commentaries from prominent social theorists attempting to map out the influence and broad scope of Boltanski's oeuvre The France of the Little-Middles Marie Cartier, Isabelle Coutant, Olivier Masclet, Yasmine Siblot, 2016-08-01 The Poplars housing development in suburban Paris is home to what one resident called the Little Middles a social group on the tenuous border between the working and middle classes In the 1960s The Poplars was a site of upward social mobility which fostered an egalitarian sense of community among residents This feeling of collective flourishing was challenged when some residents moved away selling their homes to a new generation of upwardly mobile neighbors from predominantly immigrant backgrounds This volume explores the strained reception of these migrants arguing that this is less a product of racism and xenophobia than of anxiety about social class and the loss of a sense of community that reigned before The Politics of French Business 1936-1945 Richard Vinen, 2002-08-08 A re-examination of French industry's relations with the Popular Front government and its Vichy successor The Politics of Social Solidarity Peter Baldwin, 1990 By analyzing the competing concerns of different social actors behind the evolution of social policy this study explains why some nations had an easy time in developing a welfare state while others fought long entrenched battles Gender And Career In Science And Engineering Julia Evetts, 1996-02-23 What happens to women and men who become professional engineers and scientists and work for British industrial organizations This book explores this question by focusing on real case studies The gender differences in how such careers are developed The Social Construction of Democracy George Reid Andrews, Herrick Chapman, 1997-05 The recent revival of democracy across much of the globe and the fragility of many of the new regimes have inspired renewed interest in the origins of dictatorship and democracy in modern times This book assembles renowned specialists on Eastern and Western Europe the U S Latin America and Japan to explore why democracies have succeeded and why they have failed over the past 100 years The Concept of Community from a Global Perspective , 2024-05-21 This volume presents essays analysing the ambivalent history of the globally influential political and social concept of community and the paradigms it has engendered in academia and politics While the term community often evokes positive sentiments it is also linked to oppressive regimes and exclusion A survey of the term's use is followed by studies of the sociologist

Ferdinand Tönnies and of the use of the term in disciplines such as politics applied linguistics anthropology literary theory philosophy and intellectual history The volume concludes with an analysis of the application of the concept in politics in the UK debates between liberals and communitarianists utopianism and African philosophy Contributors are Niall Bond Christopher Adair Toteff Daniel Alvaro Alexander Wierzock Sebastian Klauke Antonin Cohen Jan Buts Stéphane Vibert Rami Astruc Elisabeth Bouzonviller Françoise Orazi Andrew Vincent Astrid von Busekist Robert Kramm and Thaddeus Metz
