Islam in American Prisons Hamid Reza Kusha,2016-12-05

The growth of Islam both worldwide and particularly in the United States is especially notable among African American inmates incarcerated in American state and federal penitentiaries This growth poses a powerful challenge to American penal philosophy structured on the ideal of rehabilitating offenders through penance and appropriate penal measures Islam in American Prisons argues that prisoners converting to Islam seek an alternative form of redemption one that poses a powerful epistemological as well as ideological challenge to American penology Meanwhile following the events of 9 11 some prison inmates have converted to radical anti Western Islam and have become sympathetic to the goals and tactics of the Al Qaeda organization This new study examines this multifaceted phenomenon and makes a powerful argument for the objective examination of the rehabilitative potentials of faith based organizations in prisons including the faith of those who convert to Islam

Early Islamic Iran

Edmund Herzig,Sarah Stewart,2011-11-08 How did Iran remain distinctively Iranian in the centuries which followed the Arab Conquest How did it retain its cultural distinctiveness after the displacement of Zoroastrianism state religion of the Persian empire by Islam This latest volume in The Idea of Iran series traces that critical moment in Iranian history which followed the transformation of ancient traditions during the country s conversion and initial Islamic period Distinguished contributors who include the late Oleg Grabar Roy Mottahedeh Alan Williams and Said Amir Arjomand discuss from a variety of literary artistic religious and cultural perspectives the years around the end of the first millennium CE when the political strength of the Abbasid Caliphate was on the wane and when the eastern lands of the Islamic empire began to be taken on a fresh Persianate or Perso-Islamic character. One of the paradoxes of this era is that the establishment throughout the eastern Islamic territories of new Turkish dynasties coincided with the genesis and spread into Central and South Asia of vibrant new Persian language and literatures. Exploring the nature of this paradox, separate chapters engage with ideas of kingship, authority and identity and their fascinating expression through the written word, architecture and the visual arts. The Politics of Knowledge in Premodern Islam Omid Safi, 2006-01-01 The eleventh and twelfth centuries comprised a period of great significance in Islamic history. The Great Saljuqs, a Turkish-speaking tribe hailing from central Asia, ruled the eastern half of the Islamic world for a great portion of that time. In a far-reaching study, Rum Seljuq Architecture, 1170-1220 Richard P.

McClary, 2016-12-05 This lavishly illustrated volume presents the major surviving monuments of the early period of the Rum Seljuqs, the first major Muslim dynasty to rule Anatolia. A much-needed overview of the political history of the dynasty provides the context for the study of the built environment which follows. The book addresses the most significant monuments from across the region: a palace, a minaret and a hospital are studied in detail along with an overview of the decorative portals attached to a wide array of different building types. The case studies are used to demonstrate the key themes and processes of architectural synthesis and development that were under way at the time and how they reflect the broader society.

Historical Dictionary of Islam Ludwig W. Adamec, 2016-12-14 Muslims believe that the Koran is God's message in Arabic, revealed through the medium of the Prophet Muhammad for the guidance of the Arabs and subsequently for all humanity. There is both unity and variety in the Islamic world. Muslims are not a homogeneous people who can be explained solely by their normative texts, the Koran and the Sunnah. Muslims differ vastly in their interpretation of Islam; modernists want to reinterpret Islam to adapt to the requirements of modern times, while traditionalists tend to look to the classical and medieval periods of Islam as their model of the Islamic state. This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Islam contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 700 cross-referenced entries on major sects, schools of theology and jurisprudence, as well as aspects of Islamic culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Islam. Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin

Picken, 2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality, but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification. This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline, al-Harith al-Muhāsibī, who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abbasids. Although al-Muhāsibī was well known for his skills in many disciplines, including the Qur'ān, Prophetic narration and scholastic theology, it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered. Assessing the extent to which the political, social and economic factors played a part in his life and work, Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality.

Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al Muh sib s teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton,2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and itjihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary newspaper and journal

Calligraphy and Architecture in the Muslim World Mohammad Gharipour,2019-07-30 This major reference work covers all aspects of architectural inscriptions in the Muslim world the artists and their patrons what inscriptions add to architectural design what materials were used what their purpose was and how they infuse buildings with meaning From Spain to China and from the Middle Ages to our own lifetime Islamic architecture and calligraphy are inexorably intertwined Mosques dervish lodges mausolea libraries even baths and market places bear masterpieces of calligraphy that rival the most refined of books and scrolls The Rise of Islam Vesta Sarkhosh Curtis,Sarah Stewart,2009-01-28 This final volume in the successful series The Idea of Iran addresses the astonishing impact made by Islam during and after the Arab conquest of Iran in the middle of the seventh century As the Sasanian dynasty crumbled before the invaders triumphant onslaught its state religion of Zoroastrianism was unceremoniously dismantled to make way for the new faith of the victorious desert warriors Yet why if Iran jettisoned its indigenous religion did it still manage to retain its Persian language and distinctive Iranian identity once Muslim governance took hold These and other intriguing questions are addressed by the book which includes distinguished contributions from world renowned scholars such as Hugh Kennedy Edmund Bosworth Robert Hillenbrand and Ehsan Yarshater Discussing a large variety of subjects which covers the whole spectrum of life in early Islamic Iran the volume offers one of the most ambitious perspectives on Persian religion society and culture to be published to date It will be consulted by all students of Iranian history and will be regarded as essential reading for scholars of Islam the Middle East and medieval religion alike

The A to Z of Islam Ludwig W. Adamec,2009 Along with a list of abbreviations and acronyms and a map of the Islamic world a chronology lists important dates from the 6th to the end of the 20th century and an introductory chapter outlines the history of Islam A comprehensive bibliography guides the serious student for further research

BOOK JACKET Of Lost Cities Nizar F. Hermes,2024-11-15 The poetic memorialization of the Maghrib city illuminates the ways in which exilic

Maghrib poets constructed idealized images of their native cities from the ninth to nineteenth centuries CE. The first work of its kind in English, Of Lost Cities, explores the poetics and politics of elegiac and nostalgic representations of the Maghrib city and sheds light on the ingeniously indigenous and indigenously ingenious manipulation of the classical Arabic subgenres of city elegy and nostalgia for one's homeland. Often overlooked, these poems distinctively Maghrib both classical and vernacular and written in Arabic and Tamazight deserve wider recognition in the broader tradition and canon of post-classical Arabic poetry. Alongside close readings of Maghrib poets such as Ibn Rashīq, Ibn Sharaf al-Urārī, Ibn al-ʿAmīd al-Anḥālī, Ibn Khams, Ab al-Fatḥ al-Tūnī, al-Tuhmāmī, and Ibn al-Shihīd, Nizar Hermes provides a comparative analysis using Western theories of place memory and nostalgia. Containing the first translations into English of many poetic gems of premodern and precolonial Maghrib poetry, Of Lost Cities reveals the enduring power of poetry in capturing the essence of lost cities and the complex interplay of loss, remembrance, and longing.

In Synchrony with the Heavens, Volume 1: Call of the Muezzin David King, 2004-02-01. This is the first investigation of one of the main interests of astronomy in Islamic civilization: namely, timekeeping by the sun and stars and the regulation of the astronomically defined times of Muslim prayer. The study is based on over 500 medieval astronomical manuscripts first identified by the author, now preserved in libraries all over the world and originally from the entire Islamic world, from the Maghrib to Central Asia and the Yemen. The materials presented provide new insights into the early development of the prayer ritual in Islam. They also call into question the popular notion that religion could not inspire serious scientific activity. Only one of the hundreds of astronomical tables discussed here was known in medieval Europe, which is one reason why the entire corpus has remained unknown until the present. A second volume, also to be published by Brill, deals with astronomical instruments for timekeeping and other computing devices.
