New Soundings Essays On Developing Tradition:

New Soundings Stephen Platten, Andrew Chandler, 1997-01

The Edited Collection Peter Webster, 2020-06-04

Edited collections are widely supposed to contain lesser work than scholarly journals to be incoherent as volumes no more than the sum of their parts and to be less visible to potential readers once published It is also often taken as axiomatic that those who make decisions in relation to hiring promotion tenure and funding do so agree To publish in or edit an essay collection is thought to risk being penalised for the format before even a word is read After examining the origins of this critique this Element explores the modern history of the edited collection and the particular roles it has played It examines each component part of the critique showing that they are either largely unfounded or susceptible of solution It proposes the edited collection as a model of one possible idea of scholarly community collaboration trust and mutual obligation in pursuit of a wider good

Religious Objects in Museums Crispin Paine, 2013-08-29 In the past museums often changed the meaning of icons or statues of deities from sacred to aesthetic or used them to declare the superiority of Western society or simply as cultural and historical evidence The last generation has seen faith groups demanding to control their objects and curators recognising that objects can only be understood within their original religious context In recent years there has been an explosion of interest in the role religion plays in museums with major exhibitions highlighting the religious as well as the historical nature of objects Using examples from all over the world Religious Objects in Museums is the first book to examine how religious objects are transformed when they enter the museum and how they affect curators and visitors It examines the full range of meanings that religious objects may bear as scientific specimen sacred icon work of art or historical record Showing how objects may be used to argue a point tell a story or promote a cause may be worshipped ignored or seen as dangerous or unlucky this highly accessible book is an essential introduction to the subject

Liturgy with a Difference

Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, 2019-05-31 Liturgy with a Difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002

Reasoning Together Mark Thiessen Nation, Ted

Grimsrud, 2008-10-23 Two theologians Ted Grimsrud and Mark Thiessen Nation argue both sides of an issue that is vexing the postmodern church homosexuality This book develops the give and take over the differences between the two scholars but it also offers areas of agreement and consensus

Sounding the Abyss Roger V. Bell, 2004-01-01 Sounding the Abyss achieves an analysis that extends Cavell's already rich range of work into surprising new directions in postcolonialism multiculturalism and general cultural criticism The work never strays from its concern with reassessing the divide between philosophy's analytic and Continental factions

Sounding Authentic Joshua S. Walden, 2014 Sounding Authentic

considers the intersecting influences of nationalism modernism and technological innovation on representations of ethnic and national identities in twentieth century art music Author Joshua S Walden discusses these forces through the prism of what he terms the rural miniature short violin and piano pieces based on folk song and dance styles This genre mostly inspired by the folk music of Hungary the Jewish diaspora and Spain was featured frequently on recordings and performance programs in the early twentieth century Furthermore Sounding Authentic shows how the music of urban Romany ensembles developed into nineteenth century repertoire of virtuosic works in the style hongrois before ultimately influencing composers of rural miniatures Walden persuasively demonstrates how rural miniatures represented folk and rural cultures in a manner that was perceived as authentic even while they involved significant modification of the original sources He also links them to the impulse toward realism in developing technologies of photography film and sound recording Sounding Authentic examines the complex ways the rural miniature was used by makers of nationalist agendas who sought folkloric authenticity as a basis for the construction of ethnic and national identities The book also considers the genre's reception in European diaspora communities in America where it evoked and transformed memories of life before immigration and traces how many rural miniatures were assimilated to the styles of American popular song and swing Scholars interested in musicology ethnography the history of violin performance twentieth century European art music the culture of the Jewish Diaspora and more will find Sounding Authentic an essential addition to their library Bibliographie Internationale Des Recensions de la Litt Érat

'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart,2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster The Tablet ,1997 The international Catholic weekly The Development of Doctrine in the Church Peter Toon,2018-01-11 The Christian faith is based ultimately on Scripture and most denominations also base their system of doctrine on Scripture This system is set forth in creeds confessions of faith and articles of religion In this important book Peter Toon discusses the development of doctrine in the church that is the attempt to answer questions concerning the nature of doctrine and its relationship to the church Toon examines the thought of those who have studied and written about the development of doctrine from the nineteenth century to the present John Henry Newman Robert Rainey James Orr and Karl Rahner are among those whose work is considered here Toon concludes that we need a way of understanding development that does justice to the unique place of Scripture to the reality of human society in which the Bible is studied to the historical situation in which Christians form doctrine and to the explication of doctrine in precise intellectual terms

Sounding Off: Theorizing Disability in Music Neil Lerner, Joseph Straus, 2006-11-06 Disability understood as culturally stigmatized bodily difference including physical and mental impairments of all kinds is a pervasive and permanent aspect of the human condition While the biology of bodily difference is the proper study for science and medicine the meaning that we attach to bodily difference is the proper study of humanists The interdisciplinary field of Disability Studies has recently emerged to theorize social and cultural constructions of the meaning of disability Although there has been an astonishing outpouring of humanistic work in Disability Studies in the past ten years there has been virtually no echo in musicology or music theory Sounding Off: Theorizing Disability in Music is the first book length work to focus on the historical and theoretical issues of music as it relates to disability It shows that music like literature and the other arts simultaneously reflects and constructs cultural attitudes toward disability Sounding Off: Theorizing Disability in Music promises to be a landmark study for scholars and students of music disability and culture

Sounding the Virtual: Gilles Deleuze and the Theory and Philosophy of Music Nick Nesbitt, 2016-04-01 It is the contention of the editors and contributors of this volume that the work carried out by Gilles Deleuze where rigorously applied has the potential to cut through much of the intellectual sedimentation that has settled in the fields of music studies Deleuze is a vigorous critic of the Western intellectual tradition calling for a philosophy of difference and despite its ambitions he is convinced that Western philosophy fails to truly grasp or think difference as such It is argued that longstanding methods of conceptualizing music are vulnerable to Deleuze's critique But as Deleuze himself stresses more important than merely critiquing established paradigms is developing ways to overcome them and by using Deleuze's own concepts this collection aims to explore that possibility

Ritual Journeys in South Asia Christoph Bergmann, Jürgen Schaflechner, 2019-08-09 This book focuses on the ritualized forms of mobility that constitute phenomena of pilgrimage in South Asia and establishes a new analytical framework for the study of ritual journeys The book advances the conceptual scope of classical Pilgrimage Studies and provides empirical depth through individual case studies A key concern is the strategies of ritualization through which actors create assemble and re-articulate certain modes of displacement to differentiate themselves from everyday forms of locomotion Ritual journeys are understood as being both productive of and produced by South Asia's socio economically uneven politically charged and culturally variegated landscapes From various disciplinary angles each chapter explores how spaces and movements in space are continually created contested and transformed through ritual journeys By focusing on this co production of space and mobility the book delivers a conceptually driven and empirically grounded engagement with the diverse and changing traditions of ritual journeying in South Asia Interdisciplinary in its approach the book is a must have reference work for academics interested in South Asian Studies Religious Studies Anthropology and Human Geography with a focus on pilgrimage and the socio spatial ideas and practices of ritualized movements in South Asia

Sounding the Dance, Moving the Music Mohd Anis Nor, Kendra Stepputat, 2016-07-01 Performing arts in most parts of Maritime Southeast Asia are seen as an entity where music and dance sound and movement acoustic and tactile elements intermingle and complement each other Although this fact is widely known and referenced most scholarly works in the performing arts so far have either focused on music or dance rather than treating the two in combination The authors in this book look at both aspects in performance moreover they focus explicitly on the interrelation between the two on both descriptive analytical and metaphorical levels The book includes diverse examples of regional performing art genres from Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines All case studies are composed from the perspective of the relatively new approach and field of ethno choreomusicology This particular compilation gives an exemplary overview of various phenomena in movement sound relations and offers for the first time a thorough study of the phenomenon that is considered essential for the performing arts in Maritime Southeast Asia the inseparability of movement and sound
