On Women Turning 70 Cathleen Rountree, 1999-03-12 About this issue of aging I want to make a terribly important point People decide to get old I've seen them do it It's as if they've said Right that's it now I'm going to get old Then they become old Why they do this I don't know Maybe they like to be dependent But I do think it's terribly important that people not make that inner decision Because then they sit around and they're old It's easy not to do it in fact It's not about staying young but about not getting old Doris Lessing On Women Turning 70 is a celebration of successful love relationships self of life Its sixteen intimate portraits of women in their seventies are a testament to women everywhere that life can and must be lived to its fullest The artists social activists actors scientists journalists academics poets and novelists we meet are wise vital and impertinent and all are disarmingly honest Through their stories these vibrant women share a depth of wisdom and knowledge acquired after more than seventy years of experience and living And they haven't stopped living yet Liz Smith the acclaimed newspaperwoman achieved her extraordinary success just as she was about to retire Leah Friedman started work on her Ph.D. the year before she turned seventy Harvard professor Elinor Gadon claims to have more energy than women forty years her junior Betty Friedan the mother of the feminist movement keeps her spirit and curiosity alive by trying something new every week Artist Betye Saar remarks on her colorfully dyed hair If I want my hair purple it's purple Sociologist Lee Robbins fell in love and married again when she was seventy five Just as were her previous best selling books on women turning forty fifty and sixty this newest addition to the decade series of books from Cathleen Rountree is proof that aging is a passionate powerful and transformative process to be honored and celebrated We are reminded that age is not

Ruth Asawa and the Artist-Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller,2025-07-01 How a group of artist mothers in postwar San Francisco refused the centuries old belief that a woman could not make art while also raising children For most of modern history to be an artist and a mother was to embody a contradiction in terms This awful dichotomy as painter Alice Neel put it pitted artmaking against caretaking and argued that the best art was made at the expense of family and futurity But in San Francisco in the 1950s and 1960s a group of artists gathered around Ruth Asawa 1926 2013 began to reject this dominant narrative In Ruth Asawa and the Artist Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller analyzes this remarkable moment Insisting that their labor as mothers fueled their labor as artists these women redefined key aesthetic concerns of their era including autonomy medium specificity and originality Delving into the archive where the traces of motherhood have not yet been erased from official history Troeller reveals Ruth Asawa s personal and professional dialogue with several other artist mothers including Merry Renk Imogen Cunningham and Sally Woodbridge For these women motherhood was not an essentialized identity but rather a means to reimagine the terms of artmaking outside of the patriarchal policing of reproduction This project unfolded in three broad areas which also structure the book s chapters domesticity and decoration metaphors for creativity and maternal labor in the public sphere especially in the public schools Drawing on queer theory and feminist writings Troeller argues that in belatedly accounting for the figure of the artist mother art history must reckon with an emergent paradigm of artmaking one predicated on reciprocity caretaking and futurity

Wyatt, 2004 The best antiaging secrets for women La vejez como materia literaria en la narrativa reciente de Doris Lessing Carmen García Navarro, 2003-01-01 A lo largo del tiempo Doris Lessing ha manifestado su posici n con respecto a lo considerado estable o establecido leg timo de tal modo que sus obras ofrecen sugerentes lecturas con respecto a la representaci n de la edad la minusval a f sica o ps quica o la identidad sexual Lessing dedica un lugar privilegiado en su literatura a aquellos que no ocupan un lugar favorable en la sociedad multicultural que recibe d a a d a los flujos de la globalizaci n aquellos que ven o han visto disminuidas sus posibilidades de desarrollo desde el punto de vista social econ mico y cultural por causas pol ticas sociales de salud o de edad Las novelas objeto de este an lisis guardan una coherencia tem tica mediante la que Lessing manifiesta las consecuencias vividas por una sociedad en la que el desarraigo y la búsqueda del origen se convierten en una constante. Ello se produce sobre todo en el caso de la representación de mujeres que reciben la experiencia de la vejez, el abandono o el desamor, así como el paso del tiempo y el advenimiento de la muerte. Todo ello constituye el motor de la vida de los personajes de Lessing y muestra que el individuo no es sino una consecuencia de lo que ya fue de lo vivido a través de generaciones que han ido regando la semilla de un mundo que destruye cualquier atisbo de equilibrio interior y ante el que por tanto se produce la puesta en cuestión de valores tradicionalmente aceptados por la sociedad europea occidental. The Publishers Weekly
