500 colourful postcards are the ships on which so many of our predecessors sailed as emigrants soldiers administrators or simply as tourists in days long past These cards which are now highly collectable show how steamships developed over the years but they are also a fine tribute to the artists who painted them This volume also includes a glossary of some 170 illustrators which forms an important reference section and advice on collecting Santa Clara County Rick

Weitzel,2013 In the late 1950s businessman Joe Zukin Jr had a dream of building an amusement park with a Wild West theme in Santa Clara County His dream was realized with the 1961 opening of Frontier Village on the former grounds of the Hayes Mansion in south San Jose Among the trees rose a fantasy frontier town complete with a Main Street where hourly gunfights always ended with the bad guys being carted off to Boot Hill Visitors could relax in the town square or ride the train around the park Guests could paddle an Indian war canoe ride in a stagecoach or venture into the interior of a haunted mine Frontier Village was a safe and clean place that welcomed children and their families Encroaching subdivisions and changing economic conditions forced the park to close in 1980 but to this day fond memories of the park continue to live on in everyone who ever visited or worked in Frontier Village

Valley of Heart's Delight Anne Marie Todd,2022-10-25 This agricultural history explores the transformation of the Santa Clara Valley over the past one hundred years from America's largest fruit producing region into the technology capital of the world In the latter half of the twentieth century the region's focus shifted from fruits such as apricots and prunes to computers Both personal and public rhetoric reveals how a sense of place emerges and changes in an evolving agricultural community like the Santa Clara Valley Through extensive archival research and interviews Anne Marie Todd explores the concepts of place and placelessness arguing that place is more than a physical location and that exploring a community's sense of place can help us to map how individuals experience their natural surroundings and their sense of responsibility towards the local environment Todd extends the concept of sense of place to describe Silicon Valley as a non place where weakened or disrupted attachment to place threatens the environment and community The story of the Santa Clara Valley is an American story of the development of agricultural lands and the transformation of rural regions
