In Three Parts: Viz. Part I. Personal and Literary Memoir of the Author. Part II. Descriptive Account of His Literary Works. [By T. E. Jones.] Part III. Appendix.-Biographical, Topographical, Critical and Miscellaneous Essays, Etc. [With Plates, Including Portraits.]* John Britton, 1849      Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010 projects and an extensive bibliography Book Jacket      Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women s autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women s autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers      Autobiography Janet Varner Gunn, 2017-02-17 Autobiography Gunn argues must be reunderstood as a cultural act of reading the self not as a private act of writing the self Moreover the self that is read both by the autobiographer and the reader of autobiography is the displayed self not the hidden self the self that appears in the world and can be experienced and thereby realized by others Drawing on narrative theory phenomenology and hermeneutics Gunn locates the literary features of autobiography in the larger anthropological context of what she calls the autobiographical situation An elegantly constructed interdisciplinary analysis this book renders the hybrid genre of autobiography freshly problematic      Autobiography: A Very Short Introduction Laura Marcus, 2018-05-31 Autobiography is one of the most popular of written forms From Casanova to Benjamin Franklin to the Kardashians individuals throughout history have recorded their own lives and experiences These personal writings are central to the work of literary critics philosophers historians and psychologists who have found in autobiographies from across the centuries not only an understanding of the ways in which lives have been lived but the most fundamental accounts of what it means to be a self in the world In this Very Short Introduction Laura Marcus defines what we mean by autobiography and considers its relationship with similar literary forms such as memoirs journals letters diaries and essays Analysing the core themes in autobiographical writing such as confession conversion and testimony romanticism and the journeying self Marcus discusses the autobiographical consciousness and the roles played by time memory and identity and considers the relationship between psychoanalysis and autobiography Exploring the themes of self portraiture

and performance Marcus also discusses the ways in which fiction and autobiography have shaped each other ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Memoir, Autobiography and Correspondence of Jeremiah Mason Jeremiah Mason,1917 Polyculturalism and Discourse ,2007-01-01 This volume gathers together research by ten scholars engaging with multicultural discourse in Australia and Germany The term polyculturalism rather than multiculturalism is employed deliberately to re open a space in which the workings of discourse on culturally diverse societies both as archive or practice and as intervention can be considered in greater depth The inter cultural perspective and wide range of disciplinary affiliations exhibited by the essays in this volume contribute to this goal whereas the majority of discourse analytical work addresses the diversity of speaking positions as well as the arbitrariness of ascribed meanings within a historical framework delimited by national boundaries and disciplinary boundaries the texts collected here transgress this perspective in working comparatively between Australia and Germany Memoir of Gen'l William Wallace Grout and Autobiography of Josiah Grout Josiah Grout,1919
