Harmonizing Latina Visions and Voices Amarily Estrella, Melissa Maldonado-Salcedo, 2024-03-25 Harmonizing Latina Visions and Voices Cultural Explorations of Entornos discursively challenges the erasures stigma and silences imposed on women by functioning as a harmonizing choir a collection of voices to testify on mujerismo its vision and its promise for our future This collection puts on the record a pathway toward liberation that pushes back against white supremacist projects unleashed by academia our families official narratives of the State and immigration This book does not seek to equate the experiences of all Latinas or envision a one size fits all response We harmonize these diverse voices understanding that these stories poems and essays are invoking different spaces times and experiences We offer them as an intergenerational intellectual and spiritual dialogue As a practice this work centers and contextualizes how women s resistance is articulated and expressed The stories reflected in the chapters that follow are often matricentric transnational and queer Some recurring themes center on the policing policies and legislations that govern Latina s bodies and the entornos social environmental worlds in which they move are detained or embodied

Latin American Documentary Narratives Liliana Chávez Díaz, 2021-11-04 Winner of the Victor Villaseor Best Latino Focused Nonfiction Book Award English from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards What defines the boundary between fact and fabrication fiction and nonfiction literature and journalism Latin American Documentary Narratives unpacks the precarious testimonial relationship between author and subject where the literary journalist rather than the subject being interviewed can become the hero of a narrative in its recording and retelling Latin American Documentary Narratives covers a variety of nonfiction genres from the 1950s to the 2000s that address topics such as social protests dictatorships natural disasters crime and migration in Latin America This book analyzes and includes an appendix of interviews with authors who have not previously been critically read together from the early and emblematic works of Gabriel García Márquez and Elena Poniatowska to more recent authors like Leila Guerriero and Juan Villoro who are currently reshaping media and audiences in Latin America In a world overwhelmed by data production and marked by violent acts against those considered others Liliana Chávez Díaz argues that storytelling plays an essential role in communication among individuals classes and cultures

Youth Voices, Public Spaces, and Civic Engagement Stuart Greene, Kevin J. Burke, Maria K. McKenna, 2016-02-26 This collection of original research explores ways that educators can create participatory spaces that foster civic engagement critical thinking and authentic literacy practices for adolescent youth in urban contexts Casting youth as vital social actors contributors shed light on the ways in which urban youth develop a clearer sense of agency within the structural forces of racial segregation and economic development that would otherwise marginalize and silence their voices and begin to see familiar spaces with reimagined possibilities for socially just educational practices

From Lack to Excess Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel, 2008 From Lack to Excess analyzes the narrative and rhetorical structures of Latin American colonial texts by establishing a dialogue with studies on minority discourse minor literatures and postcolonial theory After reviewing the main contributions and limitations of Transatlantic Early Modern and Postcolonial studies for the interpretation of Latin American colonial textualities Martínez San Miguel takes as a point of departure the subtle yet pervasive semantic link between the terms minority and colonialism prevalent in current studies on ethnic and sexual identities She then engages the disciplinary debate between Colonial Latin American studies and Early Modern Transatlantic and Postcolonial studies paying attention to the epistemic and institutional junctures that explain the current reconfiguration of these fields As an alternative to an exhausted debate Martínez San Miguel uses

Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari's notion of a minor literature along with current studies on minority discourse to propose new close readings of texts by Hernan Cortes Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca the Inca Garcilaso de la Vega Carlos de Sigüenza y Gongora and Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz From Lack to Excess traces a discursive voyage that configures a linguistic matrix from the initial lack of language to the excessive Baroque representation of American reality BOOK JACKET
