Patriotism Perverted Richard Griffiths, 2015-07-09 Patriotism Perverted is an exploration of British anti-Semitism in the last six months of peace and the first year of the Second World War It shows how against the backdrop of an endemic British social anti-Semitism a virulent form of this tendency was able to emerge in the late Thirties in a variety of extremist movements These movements gained their strength from the popular obsessions in 1939 with Jewish responsibility for the approaching war seen as The War of the Jews Revenge and with the myth of the Judaeo Bolshevik Plot In many cases these views were closely related with pro Nazism and were often held by the most patriotic of people For most the outbreak of war was a signal to perform their patriotic duty But there were others who found themselves in a considerable dilemma torn between patriotism and their desire to subvert a war they believed Britain to have been tricked into undertaking Researching many prominent figures of the day including Captain Ramsay and Sir Oswald Mosley Patriotism Perverted offers a fascinating insight into the views and activities of those in the various anti-Semitic and or pro Nazi circles in 1939
