Herbert Marsh,Rhonda G. Craven,Dennis M. McInerney,2003-10-01 MISSION STATEMENT Maximising self concept is recognised as a critical goal in itself and a means to facilitate other desirable outcomes in a diversity of settings The desire to feel positively about oneself and the benefits of this feeling on choice planning persistence and subsequent accomplishments transcend traditional disciplinary barriers and are central to goals in many social policy areas International Advances in Self Research monograph series publishes scholarly works that primarily focus on self concept research and pertain to a broad array of self related constructs and processes including self esteem self efficacy identity motivation anxiety self attributions self regulated learning and meta cognition The research focus of the monograph series includes theory underlying these constructs their measurement their relation to each other and to other constructs their enhancement and their application in research and practice Chapters address a wide cross section of settings participants and research areas This series has a special interest in self concept theory and research in settings characterised by diversity such as special education linguistic diversity socioeconomic and cultural diversity Self-Concept, Motivation and Identity Frédéric Guay,Herbert Marsh,Dennis M. McInerney,Rhonda G. Craven,2015-06-01 The concept of the Self has a long history that dates back from the ancient Greeks such as Aristotle to more contemporary thinkers such as Wundt James Mead Cooley Freud Rogers and Erikson Tesser Felson 2000 Research on the Self relates to a range of phenomena including self esteem self concept self protection self verification self awareness identity self efficacy self determination etc that could be sharply different or very similar Despite this long tradition of thinkers and the numerous studies conducted on the Self this concept is still not very well defined More precisely it is not a precise object of study but rather a collection of loosely related subtopics Baumesiter 1998 Also in the philosophical literature the legitimacy of the concept of self has been brought into question Some authors have argued that the self is not a psychological entity per se but rather an illusion created by the complex interplay between cognitive and neurological subsystems Zahavi 2005 Although no definitive consensus has been reached regarding the Self we emphasize in this volume that the Self and its related phenomena including self concept motivation and identity are crucial for understanding consciousness and therefore important to understand human behavior Self concept motivation and identity Underpinning success with research and practice provides thus a unique insight into self concept and its relationship to motivation and identity from varied theoretical and empirical perspectives This volume is intended to develop both theoretical and methodological ideas and to present empirical evidence demonstrating the importance of theory and research to effective practice
