Watkins,2017-02-16 Preaching is dramatic Through it we hear the voice of the living God as he speaks to us both through the reading and the preaching of the word of God But where do the hearers of sermons fit into the drama This book suggests ways in which the drama metaphor may help to address age old questions about the centrality of the gospel and the place of the hearer in preaching As God in Christ is the central character in the biblical drama of redemption he also calls hearers to understand their role in creatively yet faithfully living according to the biblical script Thus no sermon is complete until God's redemptive work is powerfully proclaimed and his people are instructed in how they too are participating in the Missio Dei In this work Hebrews 11 is employed as a means of showing how God not only reveals his redemptive work to his people but also through them As postmodernism sets the stage of contemporary preaching The Drama of Preaching interacts with some of the particular challenges preachers face in engaging postmodern listeners that they might not only be hearers but doers of the preached word

Coffee, Tea, and Holy Water Amanda Hudson, 2015-03-03 Coffee Tea and Holy Water takes the reader on an armchair tour of Christianity in our world across borders and over continents Author Amanda Hudson provides a personal touch with cultural curiosities profound questions about the nature and practice of faith as she travels to five countries Brazil Wales Tanzania China and Honduras Part reflection part entertaining travelogue Coffee Tea and Holy Water explores everything from each culture's offer of hospitality to life in a Masaai boma There are lessons to be learned from other countries that are not visible in our own culture writes Hudson Questions that are not our questions Struggles that are not our normal struggles And yet when we look around the throne one day at the nations assembled there instead of marveling at the diversity I think we will actually be fascinated by what we all had in common This is a book about the places we meet what we share how we can learn to cross borders geographical cultural personal and learning that the steps to do so make all the difference Honest witty and thought provoking these stories come from a young woman raised in the South who found herself wondering what normal Christianity looked like in other countries Christian Advocate, 1922

Misconceptions of Christianity John Marcus, 2010-11 Have you ever looked at the multitude of opinions on Christian doctrine and been confused If the early church did not teach certain rituals where did they come from And what does the Bible say regarding these issues In Misconceptions of Christianity Author John Marcus explores many of the major doctrinal stances that do not appear in the Bible or in the very early church His goal is to show the reader where the doctrines came from or at least from where the misunderstanding stems and what the Bible teaches concerning them He covers topics such as Tithing and giving to the church The doctrines of Mary and her veneration The gifts of the Spirit including the gift of tongues The observance of Christmas and other religious holidays Demonic possession and spiritual warfare And many more This book guides readers through the confusion that modern Christianity can bring and leads them straight back to the source the Bible Its approach is both insightful and convicting giving the reader a standard with which to judge his or her own actions instead of a set of rules to follow With a strong belief that the Bible is the inerrant Word of God John conveys to readers the importance of a Christ centered theology that stems directly from the Scripture Author John Marcus has studied theology and lives in New York Misconceptions of Christianity is his second book The Living Church, 1952 James Baldwin and the Short Story Benedict Ushedo, 2018-03-21 This book examines the range of issues that echo in James Baldwin's short stories. It articulates and defends the claim that the stories in the collection Going to Meet the Man are driven by the autobiographical memory of the author. To support this line of thought and the related proposition that the stories feed into themes relevant to self-knowledge, vicarious suffering, love, and forgiveness, their effectiveness as transformative and revelatory texts is highlighted. By drawing on contemporary studies and challenging the view that short stories are no more than miniature pieces merely echoing major works of their authors, this book demonstrates that the short story genre can be profoundly forceful and effective in the articulation of complex human issues. This study shows also that the humanistic import of the Baldwin stories is amplified by their ability to accumulate moral tension as they elicit the participation of the reader in an imaginative quest for a better world Pathways With Purpose Sarah J. Royer, 2018-08-21 When I started thinking about building a Faith-based curriculum for the early childhood classroom, my goal was to create a curriculum that would catch the interest of children 0-Kindergarten. Since I have worked in the early childhood classroom for almost two decades, and while the goal is at the heart of the curriculum, I have used the interest it has sparked in our young ones as mild and dulled down at best. How can we best instill an excitement to learn in our young ones? By making the material and manipulatives hands-on and exciting. I don't mean by reading a story and pulling out paper puppets on craft sticks, although this may be what some children like and want to explore. What I mean is presenting values and morals in an explorative manner in conjunction with developmentally appropriate learning standards that help engage your students in learning experiences while getting them excited. Including stories and sensory materials, story buckets, role playing with dress-up materials, including a variety of mixed media to spark your student's interests, is absolutely necessary. Create an environment that appeals to learners of various ages, backgrounds, and learning styles. Make your lesson times fun and interesting, and your learners will gravitate back for more.
