Quit Kissing My Ashes Judy Collier,2002 After Kyles death he wasted little time in coming to his mothers aid His hundreds of escapades from the spirit world are undeniable and mind boggling Whether with the help of psychic John Edward or by himself Kyle will have you laughing at his antics By accompanying Kyles family on this eye opening journey you will accelerate your own path through the darkness and into the light For Every Dark Night . . . A Mother's Journey Through Grief and Trauma Diane Muller Ludman,2010-03 In Every Dark Night A Mother s Journey through Grief and Trauma Diane Ludman courageously shares her difficult and rewarding journey through the grieving process Her stories of navigating grief s peaks and valleys are clearly driven by love and support from her family and her family of friends Honoring her feelings instincts and intuition Diane embraces the sightings of Mikie and is able to enjoy his presence in her life and to always be Mikie s mom With gathered strength and courage Diane reveals how trust can open doors to healing Diane provides a comforting treasure for grieving parents and a book to remember for us all Elizabeth Pearce KinderMourn Counselor Facilitator Visits from Heaven Josie Varga,2010 If you think youre going to die then youre in for a big surprise This book will not only challenge your assumptions it will give you the proof that you never thought existed Not only are there substantial scientific studies indicating that our consciousness survives death but those on the other side have come back time and time again with evidential messages for their loved ones Josie Varga has assembled an incomparable collection of what she terms visits from heaven from around the globe and backed up by testimony from some of the worlds leading experts on afterlife communication No Reason for Goodbyes Chassie West,2011-02-04 No Reason for Goodbyes Messages from Beyond Life is a compilation of over one hundred instances of messages or contacts from the departed submitted by the men and women who experienced them contributors from the United States Canada the United Kingdom and as far away as Australia There is Colleen who during the Arlington National Cemetery memorial service for her father a veteran of World War II saw him standing tall and erect in the distance for the playing of the Marine Corps Hymn And Jacki who as she knelt to pray the Rosary before bedtime felt a presence beside her and heard the voice of her late father Teach me how to say it And Tylers sister Robyn whod died in infancy sending a message during a television show that she liked the new athletic shoes hed just bought Incidents such as these leave no doubt of the continuation of life beyond physical death and the assurance that our loved ones remain with us still Transcripts and detailed messages from the departed courtesy of well known psychic mediums during group and one on one readings offer further proof of continued life after death And from Patti Sinclair a professional psychic medium along with Dr Bhrett McCabe a licensed clinical psychologist and his mother Mary Jo McCabe a professional psychic intuitive we are given sage advice for those among us who are skeptical or grieving No Reason for Goodbyes strongly suggests that we rethink everything we have believed about the finality of death It confirms that those who have departed from our physical world can and do reach out and touch in some cases quite literally and that love is indeed eternal If there was ever a time for a paradigm shift about the way we view death that time is now Spirit Central Awaits Us Judith McCrodden,2010 Do you know someone who lives in a haunted house What would you do if you moved into a haunted house The story you are about to read is true In fact it is the story of me and my family I decided I wanted to move but where should I move to I decided maybe I should leave the city and look further up north I never expected to come this far up but here we are They always say you never know what you re looking for until it hits you One rainy Saturday morning I took the trip Upstate a three hour drive one way to meet with the real estate lady for another day of house hunting This day I found the house I was looking for or did it find me Why I say this is because this is the house that I and my children said we didn t want when she had sent us the pictures over the internet When the family and I went to meet with the real estate lady and the house inspector something happened that caught our attention as well as the attention of the real estate lady I don t think we were wanted here The Spirits did many things to send us away I didn t get flustered too quickly though I knew I needed help with this problem but who would I call Now my hunt was on I knew I needed to contact the paranormal society to get help I started going through the internet I found a chapter in Pennsylvania that was able to help me Join me as I tell our story of what life is like in a home inhabited by Spirits It s certainly never dull I am a single mother of two children ages now 7 and 12 who wasn t happy in her environment or surroundings My home life my job my neighborhood were all getting me down I wanted out of everything I took a big chance moving away from my family My in laws also took a chance with me I was making a new start for myself my children and my in laws I was scared not knowing where I would end up It took me a year of house hunting trying to find a home that I could afford Searching in Queens or Brooklyn was impossible the prices there were astronomical I always take chances in my life and usually stand on my feet like a cat in the end This house wasn t on my list of possibilities but here I am two years later with a story to tell Journeys with My Mother's Ashes H  l  ne Jermolajew,2020-10-27 Death and life beckoned her to travel the world to heal her grief Journeys with My Mother s Ashes describes the trauma faced by a daughter who has to manoeuvre the pitfalls and traps after the death of her mother She realises that the only way toward her healing is to leave the country of her birth and travel the world taking her mother s ashes with her Join her on her Grand Tour through life death drama family healing and lots of travel There are many moments of both darkness and light fun and reflection exploration and realisations and most of all a sense of direction to a brighter future through trusting her intuition The journey has very few plans yet provides exactly what the author needs through trusting both a loving Universe and herself So pack your bags and hop on board you never know what this journey could bring Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002-04 Honey Bea's Everlasting Gift Lornabelle Gethers,2013-07-11 This is a story about my great great grandmother Maah on the Plantation in Abbeville South Carolina during the Civil War Era which takes you to my mother Honey Bea in Mount Pleasant Charleston during the Civil Rights Era and it ends with reflections on race relations 150 years later It tells of our struggles as an African American family and how victories were reached through prayers and persistence The first four chapters start off in a slightly Gullah Geechie dialect of Charleston with the modern English interpretation of those chapters at the back of the book for those that are not familiar with the Gullah dialect

MAAH DURING THE 1860s CIVIL WAR ERA Massa aint know that Mae Ann cant stand he tail now and that she be fuh spit in he food and in he water every chance she get since Massa done whip she child worsa than he would do an old mule Now it be a lil fore midnight and we slaves all be fuh sit or fuh lie down in the church just fuh wait on somethin They say President Lincoln done give we somethin that gonna free all of we slaves in the south I know I gonna go to Charleston with my freedom

MAAH WHEN THEY FINALLY GET TO CHARLESTON Lord Charleston be just fuh crawl over with the Negro folks I hey tell that most of the Negro folks in this ya whole country come from these parts and now cause I fuh see what I fuh see I be fuh believe them fuh real They dey yet still got the slave market right ya in Charleston

HONEY BEA IN CHARLESTON SC DURING THE CIVIL RIGHTS ERA IN THE 1960s The pastor continues on with his fervent preaching God is able He brought our people from a mighty long way Oh yes My God is able We have got to have that same kind of faith next week when we go to vote We have got to believe that God is sending deliverance to our people through Kennedy to free us from the Jim Crow Laws just he as he did a hundred years ago when he sent Abraham Lincoln to free the slaves Answer this for me please Is there anything too hard for our God I start thinking about those crazy Jim Crow s laws Just last week we had gone to Woolworth to get a soda float for Sarah I was tired because we had been shopping downtown all day on King Street and spending all my money in the white and Jewish stores Most of the Jewish merchants were usually really nice to my babies and always told me how clean and pretty I always kept them That day I was just too tired so I sat down at the counter at Woolworths The man that worked there refused to serve me because I was sitting down at the counter Niggra you know you cant sit down at this here counter You know the rules He says to me loudly I was getting tired of the silly rules and I was physically tired too I am paying my money just like everyone else that is sitting at the counter and I deserve to be served too He looked at me with scorn in his eyes and his face turned beet red with anger Now you listen here gal I dont care what you are paying You best be gittin out of here or I am gonna have to git you outta here myself and then Im gonna call the patrol man on you I look at him and say My momma always told me that git is for dogs and I am know that I am no dog I am due the same respect that you give to any lady He leaves from behind the counter and comes around the front toward me and my three children I thought about my babies and what would happen to them if the policeman came to arrest me and I had to leave them behind I start to leave and he turns around to go back behind the counter and stumbles over a box in his path He trips over the box and goes flying face forward and all I could think of is Da git for ya Which means that it is good for him that something bad just happened to him as punishment for being so mean to me We get outside and a white man runs up behind us Excuse me mam I just want to say that I a

When Mama Can't Kiss it Better, A journey of love, loss and acceptance Lori Gertz, 2014-09-18

WHEN MAMA CAN T KISS IT BETTER is the raw account of a true story that shocked the nation in 2010 Gertz was America's most hated mother when news of a decision to place her adopted child in another family broke in the media. Called out by many as an unfit mother and an evil woman who threw away her child, she was catapulted into the national and international media. Her daughter Emily suffered from fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, reactive attachment disorder, bipolar disorder, and other disorders. She had never bonded with Lori, her father, or her siblings and had begun a spiral of self-destruction that often involved running into traffic and other dangerous behaviors. While Gertz recalls feeling isolated, accounts like hers are not rare. Stories like When Mama Can't Kiss it Better are not told terribly often because of the stigma and finger-pointing. She writes: "The mother is always blamed first when a child suffers from extreme behavioral disabilities. There are millions of parents who are struggling to raise children with behavioral disabilities who feel misunderstood, unheard, and judged, and who want to be reassured that there are others like them. With one in four Americans struggling with mental illness, NIMH every year everyone in this country either lives with mental illness or knows someone who does. The greatest tragedy is that 60% of the adults and 50% of the children suffering from mental disorders will receive absolutely NO services or support for their mental illness. WHEN MAMA CAN'T KISS IT BETTER covers the adoption of their daughter Emily, early signs of trouble, their birthmother's suicide, the truth about her pregnancy, and warnings about how to avoid what happened to the author and her family. Raw and honest details about her daughter's rages, suicide attempts, and hospitalizations. The turmoil that living with mental illness causes for everyone in the home and how it affects siblings and marriages. The difficulty in receiving support from physicians, educators, clinicians. The author's increasing desperation to find answers and help as rages and impulsivity became safety issues. Being judged by doctors, schools, and outsiders as the problem while her daughter collected diagnosis after diagnosis. The painful decision to place her daughter in another family and how she came to accept that she had to do the unthinkable. Parents worldwide waging verbal attacks on her since if the fault belonged to Gertz alone, it couldn't happen to anyone else. Note from the Author: I spent the better part of six years writing this book, which began as the only way I could cope with what was happening in our lives. I just couldn't believe the lack of resources there were when I reached out for them so vociferously and started documenting what was happening inside our family, if not only to maintain my sanity, I am passionate about telling my story to help increase understanding of the enormous challenges parents of special needs children face in a culture that believes that motherly love and perseverance can cure all ills. For those on similar paths, the story of my journey to a sense of peace within the context of facing unrealized dreams, human limitations, broken hearts, and the unfair circumstances of life may help them find that same place of peace in the tough decisions within their own lives. I pray this book will bring attention to the need to better support parents and kids with mental illness and other invisible disabilities, and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to call attention to such pressing societal issues."
