The Heart of Care: Dignity in Action Amanda Waring, 2012-04-01 I felt like a caged animal This damning indictment by Dame Dorothy Tutin of her treatment in hospital at the age of 70 propelled her daughter Amanda Waring into a crusade to ensure that all older people in care are treated with kindness compassion and dignity Amanda is now a widely respected filmmaker public speaker and teacher specialising in dignified care of the elderly The Heart of Care distils her experiences covering such topics as the transition from home or hospital to care home creating person centred compassionate care homes coping with dementia creativity and activity in care honouring and celebrating our elders maintaining spiritual and emotional care The Heart of Care encourages all carers to look into themselves and question their attitudes prejudices and behaviour Combining anecdote reminiscence practical advice and role model exercises that really work Amanda Waring gently motivates and educates us all to be better carers Acknowledging that the path can be hard she includes tips and advice to keep carers engaged and motivated when the going gets tough As our population rapidly ages and more and more people find themselves researching options for care of the elderly and as lurid and disturbing stories about substandard care hit the headlines on a daily basis we all need to look closely at these issues Essential reading for all who care for an elderly person whether stranger or loved one The Heart of Care promotes respect for the dignity and intrinsic worth of others regardless of age or disability Care Extractivism and the Reconfiguration of Social Reproduction in Post-Fordist Economies Christa Wichterich, 2019-04-29 This paper suggests the concept of care extractivism as a space and time diagnostic tool to international political economics in post fordist societies Analogous to resource extractivism care extractivism depicts the intensified commodification of social reproduction and care work along social hierarchies of gender class race and North South as a strategy to cope with a crisis of social reproduction Extractivist policies result in the creation of a cheap reproductive labour force The paper analyses the current national and transnational reconfiguration of social and biological reproduction in Germany Western Europe interacting with Eastern Europe and Asia Currently the most striking features of care extractivism are a professionalisation for efficiency increase b transnationalisation based on import of care workers and c transnationalisation of biological reproduction based on reproductive technologies The contradiction between the rationale of care and the neoliberal capitalist market logic results in frequent care struggles such as the protests of hospital nurses against the depletion of care resources The politisation of care by the protesting care workers asks for giving preference to the care economy as a common good over care as a commodity Cultural Diversity in Health and Social Care Nevel A. Vassel, 2011-05-11 This is an important and stimulating book that answers salient questions frequently asked in the area of a multicultural environment by all professionals including students health practitioners educators voluntary groups social workers and prison employees The book uses a question and answer format and discussions to address vital issues in health and social care The book is divided into four sections Section 1 look at racism culture and diversity issues whereas section 2 addresses multicultural healthcare intercultural and cross cultural communication Illness spirituality and beliefs are covered in section 3 and section 4 focuses on diabetes sexual health and mental health Written in an engaging and accessible style the information contained in this book can be used by students and practitioners in nursing health social care prison reform programmes and education It is a key reference resource and valuable contribution for health and social care educators A Parent's Guide to Child Care Suresh Keshan, 2000-02-17 An ideal book for anyone who recently has had or is going to have a child The book is designed in such a way that it not only teaches but enables the parents enjoy child care It guides parents to convert the cycle of negativity into positivity whether it is regarding feeding or schooling or toilet training The book is designed in such a way that it not only teaches but enables the parents enjoy child care It guides parents to convert the cycle of negativity into positivity whether it is regarding feeding or schooling or toilet training An ideal book for anyone who recently has had or is going to have a child The book is designed in such a way that it not only teaches but enables the parents enjoy child care It guides parents to convert the cycle of negativity into positivity whether it is regarding feeding or schooling or toilet training The book is designed in such a way that it not only teaches but enables the parents enjoy child care It guides parents to convert the cycle of negativity into positivity whether it is regarding feeding or schooling or toilet training End of Life Care Nigel Hartley,2013-11-21 This comprehensive guide for practitioners working in end of life care covers everything from the different roles in the multi disciplinary care team the stages that a patient at the end of their life experiences and the professional help needed at each stage and gives a complete grounding of the current climate and philosophy in end of life care Ethics and Palliative Care Dr. Paddy Stone,2005 Part one of this book provides an explanation of ethical theory looks at difficult decisions at the end of life questions autonomy and rights and covers the use of sedation at the end of life while part two presents case histories and clinical scenarios Oxford Handbook of Dental Patient Care Crispian Scully,Athanasios Kalantzis,2005 This best selling pocket guide continues to bridge the gap between dental and medical knowledge It provides practical information for the dental professional on how to take a full medical history examine the patient perform the appropriate investigations appreciate the patient's medical problems and their implications on dental managements and treat their patients in a safe and effective way Care and Education in Early Childhood Audrey Curtis,Maureen O'Hagan,2003-12-16 This book provides a comprehensive text that brings together the core issues surrounding the training of early years students The Christian Advocate ,1915 The Economics of Resource Allocation in Health Care Andrea Klonschinski,2016-03-31 The question of how to allocate scarce medical resources has become an important public policy issue in recent decades Cost utility analysis is the most commonly used method for determining the allocation of these resources but this book counters the argument that overcoming its inherent imbalances is simply a question of implementing methodological changes The Economics of Resource Allocation in Health Care represents the first comprehensive analysis of equity weighting in health care resource allocation that offers a fundamental critique of its basic framework It offers a critique of health economics putting the discourse on economic evaluation into its broader socio political context Such an approach broadens the debate on fairness in health economics and ties it in with deeper rooted problems in moral philosophy Ultimately this interdisciplinary study calls for the adoption of a fundamentally different paradigm to address the distribution of scarce medical resources This book will be of interest to policy makers health care professionals and post graduate students looking to broaden their understanding of the economics of the health care system Community Care Practice and the Law Michael Mandelstam,1999 This second edition of Community Care Practice and the Law has been substantially rewritten and restructured to reflect the rapid change affecting community care in legislation the law courts policy and practice The book bridges the gap between law and practice by juxtaposing fully and
