Naomi Zack, 2023-04-27 Philosophy of Race: An Introduction provides plainly written access to a new subfield that has been in the background of philosophy since Plato and Aristotle. The second edition is updated to include contemporary developments such as digital racism, metaphysical othering, and metaphysical racism, and the rise of populist movements. Its focus has also been expanded to address non-white racial groups in the Americas, Europe, and beyond, such as the Roma and Uighur people. Part I provides an overview of ideas of race and ethnicity in the philosophical canon, egalitarian traditions, race in biology, and race in American and Continental Philosophy. Part II addresses race as it operates in life through colonialism and development, social constructions, and institutions, racism, political philosophy, gender, and populist movements. This book constructs an outline that will serve as a resource for students, nonspecialists, and general readers in thinking, talking, and writing about philosophy of race. On Race and Racism in America

Michael Jackson and the Quandary of a Black Identity Sherrow O. Pinder,2021-08-01 In Michael Jackson and the Quandary of a Black Identity Sherrow O Pinder explores the ways in which the late singer s racial identification process problematizes conceptualizations of race and the presentation of blackness that reduces blacks to a bodily mark Pinder is particularly interested in how Michael Jackson simultaneously performs his racial identity and posits it against strict binary racial definitions neither black nor white While Jackson s self fashioning deconstructs and challenges the corporeal notions of natural bodies and fixed identities negative readings of the King of Pop fuel epithets such as weird or freak subjecting him to a form of antagonism that denies the black body its self determination Thus for Jackson racial identification becomes a deeply ambivalent process which leads to the fragmentation of his identity into plural identities Pinder shows how Jackson as a racialized subject is discursively confined to a third space a liminal space of ambivalence
