 Morgan, 2008 Attempts to shed fresh light on the intersections between mental health mental distress and society This work provides a statement of the importance of thinking through the humanities for any non reductive understanding of the meaning of mental distress and gives insights on a range of problems Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2002 This volume provides lively and clearly written expositions of those figures who have done most to shape our views in the period since 1914 Music cinema drama art fiction poetry and philosophy are just some of the fields covered Ideas of Space in Contemporary Poetry Ian Davidson, 2007-04-17 This book draws out connections between ideas of space in cultural and social theory and developments in contemporary poetry Studying the works of poets from the UK and USA we explore relationships between the texts ideas of globalization and issues of nationality identity language and geography Concerning Evil
 , 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The chapters within this volume expose a need to discuss and challenge both the practise of evil and the judgement of acts and persons as being evil The reader will find a diverse and intriguing selection of representative texts and themes including discussions of the monstrous the consideration of evil objects a reading of the wicked language of lying and bullshitting and investigations of madness A range of literature from medieval to contemporary texts including poetry novels television and cinema are considered and analysed through cultural and historical contexts in the hopes to extend the discussion that intrigues many of us what is evil The Reconceptualization of Curriculum Studies Mary Aswell Doll, 2016-06-23 In this volume scholars from around the world consider the influential work of William F Pinar from a variety of conversations his ideas have generated The major focus is on the What Why and How of the word reconceptualization which involves engaging critically and ethically as public intellectuals with gender class and race issues theorized in a variety of disciplines The book introduces Pinar s seminal argument for curriculum to return to its root in the word currere the running of the course of study and its key concepts autobiography as alternative to the denial of subjectivity in traditional curriculum studies study and place Issues addressed include the ethics of study both of self and of the discipline of curriculum studies the politics of presence the curricular importance of entering the public sphere the openness to complicating simple solutions and the ethical dealing with alterity the state of being other or different otherness The Idea of Decadence in French Literature, 1830-1900 A.E. Carter,1978-12-15 The cult of decadence is usually dismissed as an eccentricity of French literature a final twitter of Romantic neurosis convulsing the lunatic fringe of letters during the last third of the nineteenth century However the nineteenth century s preoccupation with decadence provides us with a key to the secret places of its thought to all the obscure passages and backstairs behind the triumphant fa ade Between 1814 and 1914 there was no sense of disaster no tragic sense Civilization had become a habit a side product of political constitutions and applied science History was viewed pragmatically of what use were such traditional symbols as throne and altar Both are essentially propitiatory evidence of man s uneasy knowledge that power is dangerous and destiny implacable And both seemed anachronisms in a world where it was thought human reason had solved or would solve all the old problems The theory of decadence is very largely a protest against this comfortable belief Had the decadents not written we should hardly suspect that the nineteenth century suffered from the same doubts and hesitations as all other ages before and since Sociology in Perspective Mark Kirby,2000 This text specifically for AQA specifications is designed to be easy and encouraging for students to use The book contains updated material and activities together with a new chapter on study skills It also indicates clearly where activities meet the new evidence requirements for key skills Far From the Tree Andrew Solomon,2012-11-13 Selected as One of the Best Books of the 21st Century by The New York Times WINNER of the National Book Critics Circle Award Books for a Better Life Award The New York Times Book Review s 10 Best Books of the Year This masterpiece by the National Book Award winning author of The Noonday Demon features stories of parents who not only learn to deal with their exceptional children but also find profound meaning in doing so a brave beautiful book that will expand your humanity People Solomon s startling proposition in Far from the Tree is that being exceptional is at the core of the human condition that difference is what unites us He writes about families coping with deafness dwarfism Down syndrome autism schizophrenia or multiple severe disabilities with children who are prodigies who are conceived in rape who become criminals who are transgender While each of these characteristics is potentially isolating the experience of difference within families is universal and Solomon documents triumphs of love over prejudice in every chapter All parenting turns on a crucial question to what extent should parents accept their children for who they are and to what extent they should help them become their best selves Drawing on ten years of research and interviews with more than three hundred families Solomon mines the eloquence of ordinary people facing extreme challenges Elegantly reported by a spectacularly original and compassionate thinker Far from the Tree explores how people who love each other must struggle to accept each other a theme in every family s life Health Promotion Robin Bunton,Gordon MacDonald,Gordon Macdonald,2003-08-27 Health promotion is an increasingly central tenet in health professionals lives It has come into the public eye as the subject of party politics and policy but where does the movement come from This book brings together views from a range of subjects some not always associated with health promotion such as marketing or communication theory Others such as social policy of psychology may have obvious connections to make here the implications for practice are discussed fully for the first time The volume adds up to a timely reflection on the state of health promotion today and will provide practitioners and academics alike with a clearer understanding of a discipline at the frontier of contemporary policy and practice

Crescent City Girls LaKisha Michelle Simmons, 2015-05-28 What was it like to grow up black and female in the segregated South To answer this question LaKisha Simmons blends social history and cultural studies recreating children's streets and neighborhoods within Jim Crow New Orleans and offering a rare look into black girls' personal lives Simmons argues that these children faced the difficult task of adhering to middle class expectations of purity and respectability even as they encountered the daily realities of Jim Crow violence which included interracial sexual aggression street harassment and presumptions of black girls' impurity Simmons makes use of oral histories the black and white press social workers' reports police reports girls' fiction writing and photography to tell the stories of individual girls some from poor working class families some from middle class respectable families and some caught in the Jim Crow judicial system These voices come together to create a group biography of ordinary girls living in an extraordinary time girls who did not intend to make history but whose stories transform our understanding of both segregation and childhood

New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union the rise and fall of postmodernism the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism the triumph of the Internet Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley next to John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer Bernard Crick Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston In a few cases for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin contributors are themselves the subject of entries With its global reach New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing There is an index of names and key terms

Gender Nonconformity, Race, and Sexuality Toni P. Lester, 2002 How are culturally constructed stereotypes about appropriate sex based behavior formed If a person who is biologically female behaves in a stereotypically masculine manner what are the social political and cultural forces that may police her behavior And how will she manage her gendered image in response to that policing Finally how do race ethnicity or sexuality inform the way that sex based roles are constructed policed or managed The chapters in this book address such questions from social science perspectives and then examine personal stories of reinvention and transformation including discussions of the lives of dancers Isadora Duncan and Bill T Jones playwright Lorraine Hansberry and surrealist artist Claude Cahun Writers from fields as diverse as history art psychology law literature sociology and the activist community look at gender nonconformity from conceptual theoretical and empirical perspectives They emphasize that gender nonconformists can be gay lesbian bisexual transgender or anyone else who does not fit a model of Caucasian heterosexual behavior characterized by binary masculine and feminine roles The Passing of

War William Leighton Grane,1914 Feminist mental health activism in England, c. 1968-95 Kate Mahoney,2023-12-12 Feminist mental health activism in England c 1968 1995 provides the first in depth examination of feminist mental health activism in England employing original oral history interviews alongside detailed case studies of unexplored feminist initiatives It charts how feminist activists in the late 1960s initially rejected psychological approaches before employing a range of therapies to understand themselves and support one another This book charts the emergence of feminist mental health groups in the early 1970s the development of feminist therapy across the 1980s and the influence of feminist politics on national charity Mind in the 1990s It examines what participation in feminist activism felt like demonstrating how these emotions have influenced the construction of its history The book simultaneously forges a new direction in the history of mental healthcare in postwar England establishing how feminists grassroots support for women redefined community care
