Our Debt to the Dog Bryan D. Cummins, 2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind s greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world

It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog s contributions to our lives and our world

Social Problems in a Diverse Society Diana Elizabeth Kendall,1998 Emphasizing the centrality of race class and gender in understanding people s life experiences and social problems in the US and other nations this college level text addresses contentious issues with reason and perspective Topics covered in the volume s 18 chapters include wealth and poverty t

Shadow Bodies Julia S. Jordan-Zachery, 2017-10-27

What does it mean for Black women to organize in a political context that has generally ignored them or been unresponsive although Black women have shown themselves an important voting bloc How for example does sayhername translate into a political agenda that manifests itself in specific policies Shadow Bodies focuses on the positionality of the Black woman's body which serves as a springboard for helping us think through political and cultural representations It does so by asking How do discursive practices both speech and silences support and maintain hegemonic understandings of Black womanhood thereby rendering some Black women as shadow bodies unseen and unremarked upon Grounded in Black feminist thought Julia S Jordan Zachery looks at the functioning of scripts ascribed to Black women's bodies in the framing of HIV AIDS domestic abuse and mental illness and how such functioning renders some bodies invisible in Black politics in general and Black women's politics specifically
