Race Writing And Difference:

"Race", Writing, and Difference, 1985 "Race," Writing, and Difference Henry Louis Gates, 1986 A classic of cultural criticism Race Writing and Difference provides a broad introduction to the idea of race as a meaningful category in the study of literature and the shaping of critical theory This collection demonstrates the variety of critical approaches through which one may discuss the complexities of racial otherness in various modes of discourse Now fifteen years after their first publication these essays have managed to escape the clichés associated with the race class gender trinity of 80s criticism and remain a provocative overview of the complex interplay between race writing and difference The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2006 Boasting new extracts from major works in the field as well as an impressive list of contributors this second edition of a bestselling Reader is an invaluable introduction to the most seminal texts in post colonial theory and criticism The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing Debbie Lisle, 2006-11-02 This book brings the serious world of politics to the superficial world of contemporary travel writing

Selected Writings on Race and Difference Stuart Hall, 2021-04-02 In Selected Writings on Race and Difference editors Paul Gilroy and Ruth Wilson Gilmore gather more than twenty essays by Stuart Hall that highlight his extensive and groundbreaking engagement with race representation identity difference and diaspora Spanning the whole of his career this collection includes classic theoretical essays such as The Whites of Their Eyes 1981 and Race the Floating Signifier 1997 It also features public lectures political articles and popular pieces that circulated in periodicals and newspapers which demonstrate the breadth and depth of Hall's contribution to public discourses of race Foregrounding how and why the analysis of race and difference should be concrete and not merely descriptive this collection gives organizers and students of social theory ways to approach the interconnections of race with culture and consciousness state and society policing and freedom The African American Male, Writing, and Difference W. Lawrence Hogue, 2012-02-01 In this wide ranging analysis W. Lawrence Hogue argues that African American life and history is more diverse than even African American critics generally acknowledge Focusing on literary representations of African American males in particular Hogue examines works by James Weldon Johnson William Melvin Kelley Charles Wright Nathan Heard Clarence Major James Earl Hardy and Don Belton to see how they portray middle class Christian subaltern voodoo urban jazz blues postmodern and gay African American cultures Hogue shows that this polycentric perspective can move beyond a racial uplift approach to African American literature and history and help paint a clearer picture of the rich diversity of African American life and culture

Race and the Writing of History Maghan Keita, 2000-11-30 Despite increased interest in recent years in the role of race in Western culture scholars have neglected much of the body of work produced in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries by black intellectuals For example while DuBois' thoughts about Africa may be familiar to contemporary academics those of his important precursors and contemporaries are not widely known Similarly although contemporary figures such as Martin

Bernal Molefi Assante and other Afrocentrists are the subject of heated debate such debates are rarely illuminated by an awareness of the traditions that preceded them Race and The Writing of History redresses this imbalance using Bernal's Black Athena and its critics as an introduction to the historical inquiries of African American intellectuals and many of their African counterparts Keita examines the controversial legacy of writing history in America and offers a new perspective on the challenge of building new historiographies and epistemologies As a result this book sheds new light on how ideas about race and racism have shaped the stories we tell about ourselves

Time and Literature Thomas M. Allen, 2018-03-29 Time and Literature features twenty essays on topics from aesthetics and narratology to globalisation and queer temporalities and showcases how time studies often referred to as the temporal turn cut across and illuminate research in every field of literature as well as interdisciplinary approaches drawing upon history philosophy anthropology and the natural sciences Part one Origins addresses fundamental issues that can be traced back to the beginnings of literary criticism Part two Developments shows how thinking about Time has been crucial to various interpretive revolutions that have impacted literary theory Part three Application illustrates the centrality of temporal theorising to literary criticism in a variety of contemporary approaches from ecocriticism and new materialisms to media and archive studies The first anthology to provide a synthesis of recent scholarship on the temporality of literary language from across different national and historical periods Time and Literature will appeal to academic researchers and interested laypersons alike

Seizing the Word Keith E. Byerman, 2010-08-01 Seizing the Word offers a comprehensive reading of the work of W E B Du Bois 1868 1963 a pivotal figure in the intellectual life of nineteenth and twentieth century America As a historian journalist novelist poet and social and literary critic this extraordinary man profoundly influenced our understanding of the African American experience Following his initial discussion of Du Bois's earliest writing Keith E Byerman posits The Souls of Black Folk 1903 as a master text that established the tropes of doubleconsciousness and the veil for which Du Bois is known and incorporated the various genres through which he voiced his understanding of the world The remainder of the study discusses Du Bois's works as elaborations of the master text within and against the contemporary discourses on history art and self Throughout Byerman examines the connections between the personal and intellectual aspects of Du Bois's life to reveal the intense engagement with moral and ideological issues found even in texts that Du Bois represented as objective At the same time in order to present some of the complexity and conflict that runs through Du Bois's work Byerman identifies the tensions and patterns in Du Bois's writing that cross disciplines or genres Instead of focusing on one aspect of Du Bois's career Seizing the Word attempts a more synthetic approach primarily by examining Du Bois in terms of contemporary literary and cultural theory most notably Lacan's Law of the Father and Erikson's work on identity

Occupying Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2005-07-28 Occupying Architecture focuses on the importance of the user of architecture It emphasises the cross currents between design theory and use and the need for a wider cross cultural approach to architecture Beginning with the architect the book proceeds to explore models for architectural practice that actively engage the issue of use and concludes with examination of the user The authors draw on illustrations and examples from London Las Vegas Barcelona and Bruges to discuss how and why architecture ignores the user The apparent contradictions between the producer and the product of architecture are highlighted before the activities of the architect and the actions of the user are explored This book illustrates that architecture is not just a building it is the relation between an object and its occupant Skin Deep, Spirit Strong Kimberly Wallace-Sanders,2002 Traces the evolution of the black female body in the American imagination Signs of the Times Elizabeth Abel,2010-05-06 The George Gund Foundation imprint in African American studies Page i of preliminary pages Representing Atrocity in Taiwan Sylvia Li-chun Lin,2007-11-30 In 1945 Taiwan was placed under the administrative control of the Republic of China and after two years accusations of corruption and a failing economy sparked a local protest that was brutally quashed by the Kuomintang government The February Twenty Eighth or 2 28 Incident led to four decades of martial law that became known as the White Terror During this period talk of 2 28 was forbidden and all dissent violently suppressed but since the lifting of martial law in 1987 this long buried history has been revisited through commemoration and narrative cinema and remembrance Drawing on a wealth of secondary theoretical material as well as her own original research Sylvia Li chun Lin conducts a close analysis of the political narrative and ideological structures involved in the fictional and cinematic representations of the 2 28 Incident and White Terror She assesses the role of individual and collective memory and institutionalized forgetting while underscoring the dangers of re creating a historical past and the risks of trivialization She also compares her findings with scholarly works on the Holocaust and the aftermath of the atomic bombings of Japan questioning the politics of forming public and personal memories and the political teleology of closure This is the first book to be published in English on the 2 28 Incident and White Terror and offers a valuable matrix of comparison for studying the portrayal of atrocity in a specific locale Segregated Sisterhood Nancie Caraway,1991

Nations Unbound Linda Basch,Nina Glick Schiller,Christina Szanton Blanc,2005-09-26 Nations Unbound is a pioneering study of an increasing trend in migration transnationalism Immigrants are no longer rooted in one location By building transnational social networks economic alliances and political ideologies they are able to cross the geographic and cultural boundaries of both their countries of origin and of settlement Through ethnographic studies of immigrant populations the authors demonstrate that transnationalism is something other than expanded nationalism By placing immigrants in a limbo between settler and visitor transnationalism challenges the concepts of citizenship and of nationhood itself The Henry Louis Gates, Jr. Reader Henry Louis Gates Jr.,2012-05-01 A scholarly primer by the Harvard University intellectual and author of the American Book Award winning The Signifying Monkey collects three decades of his writings in a range of fields in a volume that also offers insight into his achievements as a historian theorist and cultural critic Charles Johnson's Novels Rudolph P. Byrd,2005-06-13 This is truly a major contribution to African American literary criticism and it promises to elevate Johnson to the place in the literary firmament he so richly deserves Henry Louis Gates Jr Harvard University Charles Johnson came of age during the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s and 1970s His fiction bears the imprint of his formal training as a philosopher and his work as a journalist and cartoonist with a well honed interest in political satire Mentored by the American writer John Gardner Johnson is preoccupied with questions of morality which are informed by his knowledge of Continental and Asian philosophical traditions In this book Rudolph Byrd examines Johnson s four novels Faith and the Good Thing Oxherding Tale Middle Passage National Book Award Winner and Dreamer under the rubric of philosophical black fiction as art that interrogates experience Byrd contends that Johnson suspends shelves and brackets all presuppositions regarding African American life This bracketing accomplished the African American experience becomes a pure field of appearances within two poles consciousness and the people or phenomena to which it is related Johnson s principal themes are identity and liberation Intent upon the liberation of perception for the reader and the writer Johnson s fiction aims at whole sight encompassing a plurality of meanings across a symbolic geography of forms texts and traditions from within the matrix of African American life and culture And like a palimpsest Johnson s texts contain multiple layers of meaning of disparate origins imprinted over time with varying degrees of visibility and significance Charles Johnson s Novels will appeal to fans of the writer s work but it also will serve as a helpful guide for readers newly introduced to this brilliant contemporary American writer

Black Women, Writing and Identity Carole Boyce-Davies, 2002-09-11 Black Women Writing and Identity is an exciting work by one of the most imaginative and acute writers around The book explores a complex and fascinating set of interrelated issues establishing the significance of such wide ranging subjects as re mapping re naming and cultural crossings tourist ideologies and playful world travelling gender heritage and identity African women s writing and resistance to domination marginality effacement and decentering gender language and the politics of location Carole Boyce Davies is at the forefront of attempts to broaden the discourse surrounding the representation of and by black women and women of colour Black Women Writing and Identity represents an extraordinary achievement in this field taking our understanding of identity location and representation to new levels
