Race Class And The Apartheid State Unesco Apartheid And Society Series:

Race, Class & the Apartheid State Harold Wolpe, 1990 The Truth of Žižek Paul Bowman, Richard Stamp, 2007-05-17 Slavoj Žižek is widely regarded as one of the world's most important contemporary thinkers. His work has contributed dramatically to the reinvention and revivification of many key theoretical and political debates. Indeed, his vociferous and challenging body of work amounts to a sustained ground-breaking terrain-shifting and far-reaching intervention into a large number of academic disciplines, intellectual fields, and cultural debates. The Truth of Žižek addresses the rigorous critical assessment demanded by this broad and increasingly influential corpus. This timely and compelling collection of essays from an international team of leading Žižekian scholars addresses the full range of Žižek's theoretical interventions, assessing critically the political, philosophical, psychoanalytical, cultural, and institutional stakes of his work. Each chapter engages with and challenges Žižek's thought to explicate a key aspect of his work, clarifying its importance and challenging its claims through rigorous critique. By focusing on Žižek's contributions to these disciplines, fields, and debates, this collection sets out to diagnose and assess the emergence of a Žižekian moment within contemporary intellectual, cultural, and political events. The Truth of Žižek provides the first sustained engagement with and assessment of the significant impact of Žižek's work. This compelling and valuable collection of essays from cutting-edge scholars picks up the gauntlet thrown down by Žižek: the demand that his readers respond with the coldness and cruelty of true friendship. The Politics of South African Cricket Jon Gemmell, 2004-03-31 Jon Gemmell analyses the relationship between sport and politics through a historical analysis of South African cricket. Frontline Nationalism in Angola & Mozambique David Birmingham, 1992 A collection of historical ideas about the struggle to build nations on the frontiers of South Africa. A History of Resistance in Namibia Peter H. Katjavivi, 1990 An account of the struggles that led to elections after 23 years of illegal occupation by neighboring South Africa. Researching Racism Muzammil Quraishi, Rob Philburn, 2015-04-21 A welcome and overdue contribution to the field. Identifying a need for an empirical guide to complement the abundant theoretical literature, this book combines a variety of practical avenues of advice with analytical sophistication without losing any of the subject matter's complexities. The contextual chapters are well judged and informative, while readers will surely find the careful selection and very clear presentation of the case studies particularly useful in thinking through the projects from start to completion. Steve Garner, Open University. This book offers a one-stop guide to the meaning of racism, key studies in the field, core methodologies, and an agenda for research for the future. Discussing the salient aspects of race and racism in contemporary society alongside methodological and practical considerations of qualitative research in the field, Researching Racism is not only an original textbook but also a crucial guide for anyone beginning their own research on racism. Based on Muzammil Quraishi and Rob Philburn's extensive background as researchers, supervisors, and teachers, this book offers a clear and accessible account of an interdisciplinary and complex topic, incorporates historical, legislative, and international dimensions.

of race and racism outlines and illustrates a range of qualitative research methods provides case studies and engaging examples includes a tool kit for researchers of racism This is an indispensable guide for students wanting to research race and racism across the social sciences South Africa, Past, Present and Future Tony Binns, Alan Lester, Etienne Nel, 2014-09-25 This is the first book to combine a discussion of post apartheid development initiatives with an extended historical analysis of South Africa's dynamic race class gender and ethnic identities Bringing together the research of an historical geographer and two development geographers the book enables us to locate the post apartheid transition in a broad historical and spatial perspective Within this perspective the limitations as well as the achievements of South Africa's current transformation are highlighted Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993 The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about Racism After Apartheid Vishwas Satgar, 2019-03-01 Racism after Apartheid volume four of the Democratic Marxism series brings together leading scholars and activists from around the world studying and challenging racism In eleven thematically rich and conceptually informed chapters the contributors interrogate the complex nexus of questions surrounding race and relations of oppression as they are played out in the global South and global North Their work challenges Marxism and anti racism to take these lived realities seriously and consistently struggle to build human solidarities Ordoliberalism, State and Society Olimpia Malatesta, 2025-01-31 This book provides a new interpretation of ordoliberalism the influential German version of neoliberalism by exploring the political legal and social context of its emergence Ordoliberal scholars regarded sociology juridical science and economics as concrete policy making instruments designed to discipline the structural conflicts of modern society For in their view society should not impinge on the economy Ordoliberalism is here presented as a political theory of social order developing out of the crisis of the Weimar Republic and which has proven to be one of the most influential neoliberal accounts of social organization after WWII Assessing the influence that leading German intellectuals such as Sombart Schmoller Savigny and Schmitt have exerted on ordoliberalism this book provides an in depth analysis of the social legal and political theory of Walter Eucken Franz B hm Alfred M ller Armack Wilhelm R pke and Alexander R stow In so doing the book offers an invaluable study of the ideological roots of the notion of an economic constitution and a political theoretical analysis of one of the first articulations of authoritarian liberalism at the European level This book will appeal to scholars and students of legal social political and economic theory The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness, Zak Cope, 2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events

World City Syndrome David Alexander McDonald, 2008 The literature on world cities e tm has had an enormous influence on urban theory and planning alike From Manila to London academics and policy makers have attempted to understand and to some extent strive for world city status This book is a study of Cape Town e tm s standing in this network of urban centres and an investigation of the conceptual appropriateness of this world city hypothesis Drawing on more than a dozen years of fieldwork in Cape Town McDonald provides an historical overview of institutional and structural reforms examining fiscal imbalances political marginalization de racialization privatization and other neoliberal changes By examining and analyzes these reforms and changes McDonald contributes the first radical critique of the world city literature from a developing country perspective

Neoliberal Apartheid Andy Clarno, 2017-03-07 This is the first comparative analysis of the political transitions in South Africa and Palestine since the 1990s Clarno s study is grounded in impressive ethnographic fieldwork taking him from South African townships to Palestinian refugee camps where he talked to a wide array of informants from local residents to policymakers political activists business representatives and local and international security personnel The resulting inquiry accounts for the simultaneous development of extreme inequality racialized poverty and advanced strategies for securing the powerful and policing the poor in South Africa and Palestine Israel over the last 20 years Clarno places these transitions in a global context while arguing that a new form of neoliberal apartheid has emerged in both countries The width and depth of Clarno s research combined with wide ranging first hand accounts of realities otherwise difficult for researchers to access make Neoliberal Apartheid a path breaking contribution to the study of social change political transitions and security dynamics in highly unequal societies Take one example of Clarno s major themes to wit the issue of security Both places have generated advanced strategies for securing the powerful and policing the racialized poor In South Africa racialized anxieties about black crime shape the growth of private security forces that police poor black South Africans in wealthy neighborhoods Meanwhile a discourse of Muslim terrorism informs the coordinated network of security forces involving Israel the United States Jordan and the Palestinian Authority that polices Palestinians in the West Bank Overall Clarno s pathbreaking book shows how the shifting relationship between racism capitalism colonialism and empire has generated inequality and insecurity marginalization and securitization in South Africa Palestine Israel and other parts of the world The Colour of Business Kanya Adam, 2000 Macalester International, 2000 Articulations Amanda Alexander, 2006 Black Student Politics, Higher Education and Apartheid Saleem Badat, 1999 Black Student Politics Higher Education and Apartheid examines two black national student political organisations the South African National Students Congress SANSCO and the South African Students Organisation SASO popularly associated with Black Consciousness It analyses the ideologies politics and organisation of SASO and SANSCO and their intellectual political and social determinants It also analyses their role in the educational political and social spheres and the factors that shaped their activities Finally it assesses their contributions to the popular struggle against apartheid education as well as against race class and gender oppression
