Race Elements In Bengal A Quantitative S:

Racism in Metropolitan Areas Rik Pinxten, Ellen Preckler, 2006 For several decades a political discourse which incites exclusion and hatred against those who are perceived as different has been gaining ground most notably in affluent and developed countries Focusing on the growth of racism in large cities and urban areas this volume presents the views of international scholars who work in the social sciences and statements by non practicing academics such as journalists and policy makers The contributions of the scientists and the non academic specialists are grouped around common themes highlighting existing debates and bringing together widely scattered information The book explores the ways in which old forms of racism persist in the urban context and how traditional exclusion systems like casteism can be likened to contemporary forms like racism directed at refugees

Islamist Militancy in Bangladesh Shafi Md Mostofa, 2021-09-01 This book seeks to investigate not only the causes of radicalization but also how radicalization has unfolded since 2009 based on an exhaustive review of the relevant literature and two stints of fieldwork in Bangladesh involving 71 in depth interviews of highly credentialed individuals This book looks at both local and global factors that have served to provoke young Bangladeshis many of whom are from relatively well educated backgrounds to become religiously belligerent and eventually to turn into terrorists Ideology it is argued plays a pivotal role in the radicalization process and justifies violence Most importantly ideology proffers solutions to the micro and macrocauses of commonly identifiable youth disaffection This book mainly focuses on the Islamic State and Al Qaeda s exploitation of religious beliefs and their construction of a mobilizing apocalyptic narrative that strikes a chord with the young middle class Muslims Both organizations target them for recruitment The book ends by proffering what is called a Pyramid Root Cause model which attempts to tie all the causative variables of radicalization into a connected explanation of what has been happening in Bangladesh over the last decade This book is of interest to scholars of political Islam international politics and security studies including terrorism and the politics of South Asia

Genome-Wide Association Studies Krishnarao Appasani, 2016-01-14 Over the last twenty years genome wide association studies GWAS have revealed a great deal about the genetic basis of a wide range of complex diseases and they will undoubtedly continue to have a broad impact as we move to an era of personalised medicine This authoritative text written by leaders and innovators from both academia and industry covers the basic science as well as the clinical biotechnological and pharmaceutical potential of these methods With special emphasis given to highlighting pharmacogenomics and population genomics studies using next generation technology approaches this is the first book devoted to combining association studies with single nucleotide polymorphisms copy number variants haplotypes and expressed quantitative trait loci A reliable guide for newcomers to the field as well as for experienced scientists this is a unique resource for anyone interested in how the revolutionary power of genomics can be applied to solve problems in complex disease

Society and Politics in India Andre Beteille, 2020-12-22 Society and politics are subjects of continuous and animated discussion in contemporary India The essays brought together in this collection were written or published between 1964 and 1990 In this case it was also a period of many changes in the disciplines of social anthropology and sociology as well as in the social and political environment

Histories of Anthropology Gabriella D'Agostino, Vincenzo Matera, 2025-04-09 This edited volume presents for the first time a history of anthropology regarding not only the well known European and American traditions but also lesser known traditions extending its scope beyond the Western world It focuses on the results of these traditions in the present Taking into account the distinction between empire building and nation building anthropology introduced by G Stocking and taken up by U Hannerz the book investigates different histories of anthropology especially in ex colonial and marginal contexts It highlights how the hegemonic anthropologies have been accepted and assimilated in local contexts which approaches have been privileged by institutions and academies in different locations how the anthropological approach has been modelled and adapted according to specific knowledge requirements related to the cultural features of different areas and which schools emerge as the most consolidated today Each chapter presents a cultural history of one of the historical cultural and geo political contexts that influenced and produced the specific disciplinary traditions The chapters highlight the local contributions to the discipline the influences that the world centres have on the peripheries but also the ways in which the peripheries have learned from the centres in order to re elaborate meaningful or otherwise recognisable disciplinary lines

Statistical Data Analysis and Inference Y. Dodge, 2014-05-23 A wide range of topics and perspectives in the field of statistics are brought together in this volume The contributions originate from invited papers presented at an international conference which was held in honour of C Radhakrishna Rao one of the most eminent statisticians of our time and a distinguished scientist      Accessions List United States. Department of State. Library Division,1960-07      Peoples of South Asia Clarence Maloney,1974      Biology of the Peoples of Indian Region M. K. Bhasin,1988 Considering the amount of work carried out on different population groups of Indian region compilation of information on each of them has often been looked for The author has done an incredible job in searching and compiling the published titles in a meaningful sequence It is to be recommended as an essential guide for all research workers in human biology particularly for those who want an immediate entry to the vast literature on the biology of the people of the Indian sub continent      Proceedings of the Indian Science Congress Indian Science Congress Association,1929      Religious Traditions in South Asia Geoffrey A. Oddie,2022-02-22 These studies focus on questions of religious interaction and change in India from the sixth century B C to the present day They represent the work of scholars in a range of disciplines and who are resident mostly in Australia

Why Unitary Social Science? Ramkrishna Mukherjee,2012      The Anthropologist ,1972      Genetics of Castes and Tribes of India M. K. Bhasin,Hubert Walter,2001 This Book Is Recommended To Geneticists Demographers Biomedical Scientists And Palaco Anthropologists Whose Research In Directed To Increasing Ones Understanding Of The Biological Diversity And Evolution Of The Prehistoric And Modern Inhabitants Of The Indian Subcontinent      The Scheduled Castes K. S. Singh,1993 This volume represents as accurate a list of India s Scheduled Castes as can currently be made It reveals a highly heterogeneous profile of Scheduled Caste communities which are spread across the country and which are mainly landless with little control over resources such as land forest and water It also shows the persistence of untouchability in many pockets and the variable measures of equality that have so far been achieved in the struggle for social upliftment by the Scheduled Castes It reveals that these castes have been increasingly involved in modern occupations such as service in government departments wherever traditional industries have declined As a consequence a new sense of self respect is in the air gradually replacing some of the old myths which sought to legitimize their degradation      People of India: The scheduled castes K. S. Singh,1992 Ethnological study      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1961
