Sociology and the Demystification of the Modern World (RLE Social Theory) John Rex, 2014-08-21 Professor Rex's controversial book concerns not only those who are professional sociologists but all thinking people who live in the modern world One of the objects of sociology is to give power to the people to make a contribution to the understanding of political problems Rex writes from a deep conviction that sociology is a subject whose insights should be made available to the great mass of the people so that they may liberate themselves from the mystification of social reality that is continually and routinely presented to them through the media by those who exercise power and by those who have influence The book is dedicated to St Augustine and Franz Fanon both of whom Rex points out were conscious of living in an age which was embarking on a new barbarism but had the courage to use their intellects to help understand the possibility of a better future

Rex continues in this tradition and his main preoccupations are reflected in the present book. It includes a discussion of the problem of social knowledge, an analysis of the basic problems of theory building and with the aid of concepts derived from Max Weber an attempt to understand the major problems of the first, second and third worlds. The author also looks at social structures and moral perspectives and discusses the vocation of a sociologist in a collapsing civilisation. The book is certain to stimulate debate both in sociological and political fields and more generally and is also a serious contribution to the discussion of the methodology and purposes of sociology.

Black Mirror and Critical Media Theory Angela M. Cirucci, Barry Vacker, 2018-10-31 Black Mirror is The Twilight Zone of the twenty first century. Already a philosophical classic, the series echoes the angst of an era, a civilization and consciousness fully engulfed in the 24/7 media spectacle spanning the planet. With clever plots and existential themes, Black Mirror presents near futures where humans collide with technology and each other, tomorrows that might arrive in five years or five minutes. Featuring scholars from three continents and ten nations, Black Mirror and Critical Media Theory is an international collection of critical media theory applied to one of the most intellectually provocative TV shows of our time and the all too real conditions that inspire it. Drawing from thinkers such as Michel Foucault, Jean Baudrillard, Guy Debord, Marshall McLuhan and Paul Virilio, the authors reverse engineer Black Mirror by probing the ideas, meanings and conditions embedded in the episodes. This book is organized around six key topics reflected and explored in Black Mirror: human identity, surveillance culture spectacle and hyperreality aesthetics technology and existence and dystopian futures Concrete

Lewis, 2021-12-06 Taking an analytic and historical approach this work develops and defends Althusserian critical theory This theory it is argued produces knowledge of how a particular class of people in a particular time in a particular place is dominated oppressed or exploited Moreover without relying on a general notion of human emancipation concrete critical theory can suggest political means for the alleviation of these conditions Because it puts Althusser's ideas in dialogue with contemporary social science and philosophy the book as a whole makes contributions to Althusser studies to Anglo American political philosophy and to current debates in the philosophy of the social sciences Theory Does Not Exist Paul Allen Miller, 2024-05-14 Theory Does Not Exist Comparative Ancient and Modern Explorations in Psychoanalysis Deconstruction and Rhetoric is a collection of essays that makes a strong case for a comparative approach to what we term theory today It argues that our disciplinary boundaries create artificial divisions between philosophy rhetoric and literature which historically would not have been recognized and which have come to function as conceptual straitjackets These essays contend that a concerted engagement with the crucial texts in these debates over the last 2500 years not only offers a better understanding of the issues involved but also provides the necessary political ethical and existential tools for fashioning a better and more inclusive life Theory Does Not Exist offers a full throated defense of the humanities and crucial counterarguments against the reduction of education to the vocational and the operational
