Racism After Race Relations:

Racism After 'race Relations' Robert Miles,1993 Discusses the shifting definitions of racism and challenges the common conception that racism is experienced exclusively by black people The book aims to occupy the centre of debate on the sociology of racism and ethnic studies

Racism After "race Relations" Robert Miles,1993 Race, Class, and the State in Contemporary Sociology Jack Niemonen,2002 Situating Wilson s work on race and class in the overall contexts of sociology and radical politics this book considers the contribution of and the debate surrounding each of his major works including The Declining Significance of Race The Truly Disadvantaged and When Work Disappears The crucial place of segregation in the critiques of Wilson s theory is emphasized and the role of the state is considered Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

After Race Antonia Darder,Rodolfo D. Torres,2004-08 Further investigations of what race and racism mean in America

Racists Beware George J. Sefa Dei,2008-01-01 With admirable clarity and directness George Dei exposes the tendency towards the racial re feudalization of the contemporary public sphere in Canada and by association other post industrial societies He points to the enormous opportunity costs imposed on racial minorities in the new millennium as a consequence In RACISTS BEWARE UNCOVERING RACIAL POLITICS IN THE POSTMODERN SOCIETY Dei identifies and subjects to close scrutiny the new race bending logics of what he calls postmodern societies in which the dwellers of the suburbs and members of the itinerant white professional middle class the great beneficiaries of late capitalism and neoliberalization of the economy now have become the new social plaintiff turning the complaint of racial inequality and discrimination on the heads of those most oppressed If Gayatri Spivak asks Can the subaltern speak then Dei brilliantly poses the question When will Anglo dominant groups even critical ones ever listen This book is likely to provoke and influence discussion on racial antagonism for a long long time to come

Culture and Economy After the Cultural Turn Larry Ray,Andrew Sayer,1999-10-28 Traditionally social science treated culture as a peripheral issue but the last twenty years have witnessed a cultural turn throughout the social sciences Culture is now at the core of debate Culture and Economy After the Cultural Turn examines the impact of the cultural turn for the social sciences in relation to the decline of interest in economic aspects of society It presents a number of responses to the changing relationship between culture and economy and to the way in which the cultural turn has sought to understand it Contributors from a wide range of disciplines present differing views oon these matters in relation to issues of political sensibilities and movements equality and recognition cultural manageme

Discrimination in Football Christos Kassimeris,2021-05-17 While football does not generate discriminatory behaviour it often replicates the very same social issues that concern any given society Evidently football has witnessed an alarming increase in the number of disturbing incidents on the grounds of racism ethnocentrism sectarianism homophobia and sexism Given the variety of forms that discrimination can take it is imperative that football addresses with effect all such anti social phenomena in order to continue to promote notions pertaining to social inclusion equality and cultural diversity all central to the game's philosophy and overall popularity Assessing the nature and causes of discrimination in football is key to identifying the much needed remedies but also because discrimination poses a serious challenge to long established practices deeply rooted in democracy Discrimination in Football provides a comprehensive and in depth investigation into these key issues affecting football today This new book will appeal to academics and students with an interest in social science law sport and humanities as well as football fans and professionals in the football industry

Colorblindness, Post-raciality, and Whiteness in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder, 2015-12-27 This book problematizes the ways in which the discourses of colorblindness and post raciality are articulated in the age of Obama Pinder debunks the myth that race does not matter and reconsiders the presumptive hegemony of whiteness through the dialectics of visibility and invisibility of race

New Racial Landscapes Malcolm James, Helen Kim, Victoria Redclift, 2016-03-17 The chapters in this volume examine the racial and ethnic landscape of Britain in a contemporary era of neoliberalism and financial crisis A key aspect of neoliberal thought is the belief that we live in a post racial in which the problems of racism and xenophobia have been overcome However cultural retrenchment and coded xenophobia have been sweeping the political terrain accompanied by new racisms and new racial subjects that only close contextual analysis can unpick The scholarship contained in this collection challenges those who suggest that we live in a post racial time By focusing on particular locations in Britain at a particular moment the volume explores local stories of race and racism across changing sociopolitical ground This book is essential reading for scholars and students of race racism diaspora multiculturalism post colonialism transnationalism and post race This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Xenophobia in South Africa Hashi Kenneth Tafira,2017-10-18 This book is a vivid history of racism in post apartheid South Africa focusing on how colonialism still haunts black intraracial relationships In 2008 sixty four people died in a wave of anti immigrant violence in the Alexandra township of Johannesburg in the aftermath Hashi Kenneth Tafira went to Alexandra and undertook an ethnographic study of why this violence occurred Presented here his findings reframe xenophobia as a form of black on black racism unraveling the long history of colonial dehumanization and self abnegation that continues to shape South African black subjectivities Studying vernacular popular stereotypes gender and sexual politics Tafira investigates the dynamics of love relationships between black South African women and black immigrant men and pervasive myths about male sexuality economic competition and immigrants Pioneering and timely this book presents a cohesive picture of the new face of racism in the twenty first century From Farms to Foundries Kevin Searle,2009 Yemenis constitute the oldest group of Muslim settlers in Britain This book explores the intersections of the themes of racism class and resistance in the life stories of Yemeni former steelworkers in Sheffield Britain s major steel producing city

Negotiating Racialised Identities Carol Reid,2003 Drawing on a comparative socio historical overview of racialisation in the Australian and Canadian contexts and interviews with staff students and administrators in the AREP and NORTEP the author reveals how the tensions and contradictions of Indigenous teacher education can be productive Politics of Anti-Racism Education: In Search of Strategies for Transformative Learning George J. Sefa Dei,Mairi McDermott,2013-12-02 This collection of essays invites readers to think through critical questions concerning anti racism education such as How does anti racism education centre race as an analytic and simultaneously work with multiple sites of oppression without reifying hierarchies of difference How can anti racism education be engaged to speak to historical questions of power and privilege within conventional schooling practices How do we recognize anti racism education in its many iterations In this book the authors explore the knowledge that constitutes anti racism education and the ways in which knowledge constitutive of anti racism education becomes embodied through particular pedagogues The authors are anti racism educators with experiences in diverse settings the chapters cover various fields and socio historic geographies address contemporary educational issues and are situated within personal political historical and philosophical conversations Anti racism education is a discursive stance and steeped in politics that shape and are shaped by everyday conversations theories and practices The essays in this collection work through many of the possibilities and limitations of engaging in counter hegemonic education for transformative learning Readers will discover lived experiences theory practice and critical reflexivity

Diverse Millennial Students in College Fred A. Bonner II, aretha f. marbley, Mary F. Howard-Hamilton, 2023-07-03 While many institutions have developed policies to address the myriad needs of Millennial college students and their parents inherent in many of these initiatives is the underlying assumption that this student population is a homogeneous group This book is significant because it addresses and explores the characteristics and experiences of Millennials from an array of perspectives taking into account not only racial and ethnic identity but also cultural background sexual orientation and socioeconomic status differences all factors contributing to how these students interface with academe In providing a voice to voiceless populations of African American Asian American Bi Multi Racial Latino Native American and LGBT millennial college students this book engages with such questions as Does the term Millennial apply to these under represented students What role does technology pop culture sexual orientation and race politics play in the identity development for these populations Do our current minority development theories apply to these groups And ultimately are higher education institutions prepared to meet both the cultural and developmental needs of diverse minority groups of Millennial college students This book is addressed primarily to college and university administrators and faculty members who seek greater depth and understanding of the issues associated with diverse Millennial college student populations This book informs readers about the ways in which this cohort differs from their majority counterparts to open a dialogue about how faculty members and administrators can meet their needs effectively both inside and outside the classroom It will also be of value to student affairs personnel students enrolled in graduate level courses in higher education and other social science courses that explore issues of college student development and diversity particularly students planning to work with diverse Millennial college students in both clinical or practical work settings Contributors Rosie Maria Banda Fred Bonner II Lonnie Booker Jr Brian Brayboy Mitchell Chang Andrea Domingue Tonya Driver Alonzo M Flowers Gwen Dungy Jami Grosser Kandace Hinton Mary Howard Hamilton Tom Jackson Jr Aretha F Marbley Samuel Museus Anna Ortiz Tammie Preston Cunningham Nana Osei Kofi Kristen Renn Petra Robinson Genyne Royal Victor Saenz Rose Anna Santos Mattyna Stephens Terrell Strayhorn Theresa Survillion Nancy Jean Tubbs Malia Villegas Stephanie J Waterman Nick Zuniga

The Racialisation of Disorder in Twentieth Century Britain Michael Rowe, 2017-07-05 This book develops the concept of racialisation It argues that a full understanding of racialized discourse must pay attention to both the particular local circumstances in which they appear and well established themes which have unfolded over time An important aspect of the study is the examination of other discourses with which racialized ideas have co joined reflecting the way in which notions of race are socially constructed The final part of the thesis returns to debates of the 1980 s and argues that the racialisation of unrest in that decade was closely intertwined with conservative perspectives which sought to deny socio economic causes in favour of explanations based upon the supposed cultural or personal proclivities of those involved
