Una sociología de la globalización Saskia Sassen,2007-05 Procesos transnacionales como la globalización política económica y cultural enfrentan a las ciencias sociales con una serie de desafíos teóricos y metodológicos que surgen debido a que lo global ya sea una institución un proceso una práctica discursiva o un imaginario trasciende el marco exclusivo del Estado nación y al mismo tiempo habita parcialmente los territorios y las instituciones nacionales Es así que aún cuando la mayoría de los procesos y las entidades que se encuentran en el interior de lo nacional son nacionales cada vez resulta más necesaria la investigación empírica para determinar si todos ellos lo son pues cada vez existen más casos de localización de lo global y de desnacionalización de lo nacional. Vista de esta manera la globalización no se limita ya a la noción convencional que la define como un proceso de formación de instituciones exclusivamente globales y de interdependencia creciente entre los estados nacionales del mundo. En efecto si lo global reside en parte en el interior de lo nacional resulta evidente que la globalización no es en sus distintas modalidades compromete de manera directa dos supuestos. El primero de ellos es la concepción implícita o explícita del Estado nacional como contenedor de los procesos sociales. El segundo es la correspondencia implícita entre el territorio nacional y lo nacional como característica es decir la idea de que si un fenómeno se da en una institución o en un territorio nacional entonces debe ser de carácter nacional. En el marco de ese horizonte de reflexión esta obra de Saskia Sassen aborda el análisis de dos dinámicas diferenciadas. Por un lado la formación de procesos e instituciones explícitamente globales. Por otro lado los procesos que no pertenecen necesariamente a la escala global y que sin embargo forman parte de la globalización porque aun inmersos en territorios y dominios institucionales que en gran parte del mundo se consideran nacionales incorporan redes o entidades transfronterizas que conectan múltiples procesos y actores locales o nacionales.

Globalización, migración y derechos humanos Universidad Andina Simón Bolívar. Programa Andino de Derechos Humanos, 2004     Pensamiento crítico y matriz (de)colonial Catherine E. Walsh, 2005 El texto permite observar el proceso tanto de la comprensión como de la construcción de una novedosa perspectiva del pensamiento crítico cuya base descansa en la relación modernidad-colonialidad y los patrones del poder que esta relación ha construido. Pero también es evidenciar la importancia de las particularidades de la modernidad y colonialidad en la región y la manera como estas particularidades confluyen en la misma construcción y desarrollo de América Latina     Hegemonía, Estado y sociedad civil en la globalización, 2001-03-01     Trayectorias de pensadores de nuestro tiempo Esthela Gutiérrez Garza, 2008
