My First Cruise and Other Stories William Henry Giles Kingston, 2020-09-28 It has become a reality dear Harry I feel very strange a curious sensation in the throat just as if I was going to cry and yet it is exactly what I have been longing for You know better than any one how I had set my heart on going to sea and yet I thought that I should never manage it But after all here I am really and truly a midshipman at least a volunteer of the first class as we are called now The first time I put on my uniform with my gold band cap and dirk I could not help every now and then looking at the gold lace on my collar and the buttons with the anchor and crown and very pretty and nice they looked and I do believe that this half reconciled poor mamma and Fanny and Mary and dear little Emily to my going when they saw me with them on I'll tell you how it all happened Uncle Tom came to stay with us He had been at the Hall a week when the very day before I was to go back to school while we were all at breakfast he got a long official looking letter No sooner had he torn it open and glanced at its contents than he jumped up and shook papa by the hand then kissed mamma exclaiming They do acknowledge my services and in a handsome way too and they have appointed me to the Juno intended for the South American station the very ship I should have chosen I must have Pringle with me No nonsense Mary He wants to be a sailor and a sailor he shall be He's well fitted for it I'll have no denial It's settled that's all right I had been telling him the day before how much I wanted to go to sea He carried his point and set all the household preparing my kit and then posted off for London and rattled down to Portsmouth to hoist his flag He is not a man to do things by halves In three days I followed him The ship was nearly ready for sea Most of the officers had joined There was only one vacancy which I got Another captain had been appointed who had been superseded and he had selected most of the officers
