production has been instrumental to indigenous political demands for a Constituent Assembly and for implementing the new constitution within Evo Morales's controversial administration. On a day to day basis Zamorano Villarreal witnessed the myriad processes by which Bolivia's indigenous peoples craft images of political struggle and enfranchisement to produce films about their role in Bolivian society. Indigenous Media and Political Imaginaries in Contemporary Bolivia contributes a wholly new and original perspective on indigenous media worlds in Bolivia, the collaborative and decolonizing authorship of indigenous media against the neoliberal multicultural state and its key role in reimagining national politics. Zamorano Villarreal unravels the negotiations among indigenous media makers about how to fairly depict a gender territorial or justice conflict in their films to promote grassroots understanding of indigenous peoples in Bolivia's multicultural society. Jesus and Those Bodacious Women Linda H.
