Commodifying Everything Susan Strasser, 2013-12-16 Commodification refers most explicitly to the activities of turning things into commodities and of commercializing that which is not commercial in essence The mass marketing of pets the rise of the coffin industry the conversion of preacher into salesmen and the globalization of Taleggio cheese are some of the exciting but surprising topics in this volume that show how friendship death spirituality and artisanship all have a price after being commodified This unique collection of essays is a fascinating take on creating consumer products and consumer identities when what is for sale goes well beyond the thing itself It will be a course in a box for instructors who want to teach their students about commodification Transactions Royal Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland, 1897
