the United States and her collaboration on a national survey of Neo Pagans form the basis for exploring the practices structures and transformation of this nascent religion Responding to scholars who suggest that Neo Paganism is merely a pseudo religion or a cultural movement because it lacks central authority and clear boundaries Berger contends that Neo Paganism has many of the characteristics that one would expect of a religion born in late modernity the appropriation of rituals from other cultures a view of the universe as a cosmic whole an emphasis on creating and re creating the self an intertwining of the personal and the political and a certain playfulness Aided by the Internet self published journals and festivals and other gatherings today s Neo Pagans communicate with one another about social issues as well as ritual practices and magical rites This community of interest along with the aging of the original participants and the growing number of children born to Neo Pagan families is resulting in Neo Paganism developing some of the marks of a mature and established religion
