Sceptic's Guide to Atheism Peter S Williams,2013-09-01 This is an accessible response to the contemporary anti God arguments of the new atheists Dawkins Dennett Harris Hitchens Grayling etc Atheism has become militant in the past few years with its own popular mass media evangelists such as Richard Dawkins and Daniel Dennett In this readable book Christian philosopher Peter S Williams considers the arguments of the new atheists and finds them wanting Williams explains the history of atheism and responds to the claims that belief in God causes more harm than good religion is about blind faith and science is the only way to know things science can explain religion away there is not enough evidence for God the arguments for God s existence do not work Williams argues that belief in God is more intellectually plausible than atheism

The Ghost in the Universe Taner Edis,2009-12-02 Emphasizing the results of natural science physicist Taner Edis takes a fresh look at an age old question Is there a God or a spiritual reality beyond nature Crisis Intervention and Trauma

Jennifer L. Hillman,2013-11-11 Recent findings from an American Psychological Association task force suggest that one in four therapists will experience patient suicide and that one in eight will feel threatened by patient violence during their career Experts from this task force have also noted that clinicians receive virtually no formal training or coursework in crisis intervention Despite the increasing need for professional services among members of the general population current practitioners have few texts available that provide step by step detailed information about how to engage in crisis intervention and how to integrate recent empirical research findings into theory and practice This volume helps bridge this critical gap by providing a theoretically advanced yet practical guide to crisis intervention Particular attention is given to the role of violence within our culture patient suicide school and workplace violence long term sequelae of trauma clinical assessment and risk management professional boundaries and burn out domestic violence and the neurophysiology of trauma as well as the needs of typically underserved patient populations including minority group members older adults gays and lesbians and children The text also features critical reviews of controversial topics including EMDR critical incident stress debriefing recovered memories dissociative identity disorder and alternative medicine The material will appeal to psychologists social workers and therapists as well as practitioners in allied professional fields such as nursing criminal justice pastoral care and education Crisis intervention and trauma counseling Emergent issues in theory and practice represents an essential addition to any clinician s personal library John, Jesus, and History, Volume 1 Paul N.

Anderson,Felix Just,Tom Thatcher,2007 Over the last two centuries many scholars have considered the Gospel of John off limits for all quests for the historical Jesus That stance however creates a new set of problems that need to be addressed thoughtfully The essays in this book reflecting the ongoing deliberations of an international group of Johannine and Jesus scholars critically assess two primary assumptions of the prevalent view the dehistoricization of John and the de Johannification of Jesus The approaches taken here are diverse including cognitive critical developments of Johannine memory distinctive characteristics of the Johannine witness new historicism Johannine Synoptic relations and fresh analyses of Johannine traditional development In addition to offering state of the art reviews of Johannine studies and Jesus studies this volume draws together an emerging consensus that sees the Gospel of John as an autonomous tradition with its own perspective in dialogue with other traditions Through this challenging of critical and traditional assumptions alike new approaches to John s age old riddles emerge and the ground is cleared for new and creative ways forward Psychological
