Counter of Happiness Ilene Beckerman, 2013-06-17 During my life I've spent thousands of hours and thousands of dollars on my hair my makeup and my clothes trying to look prettier because I grew up believing that pretty girls had happier lives I'd be a lot happier now if I had that time and that money back Ilene Beckerman has lived long enough to have finally learned that there's more to happiness than finding the right hairdo and maintaining an ideal weight This is never more clear than when she's invited to her fiftieth elementary school reunion Of course I'd go to the reunion Beckerman says But delight soon turns to dismay I wondered who'd be there How would they look Would I look as good What would I wear Could I lose twenty pounds by June Her reunion presents the perfect occasion to illustrate the anxieties and doubts the dreams and hard earned triumphs of women from Queen Victoria to Britney Spears Beckerman knows what really matters in life besides good hair and she imparts her wisdom in letters unsent to Madonna Ava Gardner Sofia Coppola Meryl Streep Gwyneth Paltrow and others and to her granddaughter Olivia Frida Kahlo Cinderella Whistler's Mother and Audrey Hepburn make appearances too In this wise and wonderful book she shares a lifetime of experience that reminds us that ultimately our mothers and our grandmothers were right real beauty comes from within All Made Up Rae Nudson, 2021-07-13 A fascinating journey through history and culture examining how makeup affects self empowerment how people have used it to define and defy their roles in society and why we all need to care There is a history and a cultural significance that comes with wearing cat eye inspired liner or a bold red lip one that many women feel to this day even if we don't realize exactly why Increasingly people of all genders are wrestling with what it means to be a woman living in a patriarchy and part of that is how looking like a woman whatever that means affects people's real lives Through the stories of famous women like Cleopatra Empress Wu Madam C J Walker Elizabeth Taylor and Marsha P Johnson Rae Nudson unpacks makeup's cultural impact including how it can be used to shape a personal or cultural narrative how often beauty standards align with whiteness how and when it can be used for safety and its function in the workplace to name a few examples Every woman has had to make a very personal choice about her relationship with makeup and consciously or unconsciously every woman knows that the choice is never entirely hers to make This book also holds space for complicating factors especially the ways that beauty standards differ across race class and culture Engaging and informative All Made Up will expand the discussion around what it means to participate in creating your own self image Life Makeover Dominique Sachse, 2022 Three time Emmy Award winning
