a World War II naval hero During the Battle of the Coral Sea Swede flew an SBD Dauntless dive bomber and helped sink Shoho the first aircraft carrier lost by Japan in World War II The next day in that same Dauntless he took off from USS Yorktown and out flew and out gunned three Japanese Zeros making him the only dive bomber pilot to be awarded Navy Crosses for both bombing and aerial combat Months later the day before the Battle of Santa Cruz Swede was flying an F4F Wildcat fighter off USS Enterprise and had no recourse but to follow orders he knew to be insane He and his squadron mates flew their predictably empty search legs and beyond only to discover upon their return to Point Option in the dark that Enterprise was nowhere to be found Incredibly Swede located the oil slick he had noticed seeping from Enterprise during a morning combat air patrol and was able to track it back to the carrier After their harrowing return during the Battle of Santa Cruz the fate of Enterprise and by extension Guadalcanal lay in the hands of that same Swede Vejtasa He responded by single handedly downing an unprecedented two Japanese dive bombers and five torpedo bombers attacking the carrier Skipper Jimmy Flatley recognized that in all likelihood Swede had saved Enterprise from destruction and he recommended Swede for the Medal of Honor

Under the leadership of the key aviation admirals William Moffett and John Towers Jocko Clark with other aviation minded officers battled low budgets and unsympathetic policy makers to champion the development of naval aviation during the 1920s and 30s Pearl Harbor proved them right As captain of the new Yorktown the original was sunk at Midway Clark provided aggressive leadership in the capture of the Gilbert and Marshall Islands As a carrier task group commander Clark was instrumental in the brilliant victory at the Battle of the Philippine Sea which included the Marianas Turkey Shoot He withstood numerous kamikaze attacks at Iwo Jima and Okinawa while seeing that Japan s airpower was destroyed After the war he was instrumental in salvaging naval aviation from the attacks of other services and policy makers During the Korean War he served as Commander Seventh Fleet in the all important naval air support of that conflict Naval historian Clark Reynolds is particularly well placed to write this book because he had access to family papers and was co author of the Admiral Clark s autobiography

Gear Up, Mishaps Down Robert F Dunn,2017-01-15 Less than five years after naval aviation led the forces that defeated Imperial Japan that very organization was in serious trouble The force had been drastically reduced and despite the Korean War growing sentiment supported by no less than the chairman of the Joint Chiefs argued that the new Air Force could do anything naval aviation might be required to do Meanwhile the naval aviation mishap rate soared The very survival of naval aviation was at stake It took fifty years to turn this around Today in spite of hot wars cold wars contingencies and peacetime operations in support of friends and allies the Navy and Marine Corps accident rate is at least as good as that of the Air Force and it approaches that of commercial aviation Gear Up Mishaps Down explains that this accomplishment was achieved through dedicated and professional leadership a focus on lessons learned from mishaps and near mishaps a willingness to learn from other enterprises and by better leadership training maintenance supply and more
