Reappraisals In Canadian History:

Reappraisals in Canadian History Carl Murray Wallace, Robert Matthew Bray, 1999      Reappraisals in Canadian History, Post-confederation Angus Gilbert, Carl Wallace, Robert Matthew Bray, 1992      Reappraisals in Canadian History, Pre-confederation Robert Matthew Bray, Carl Wallace, 1999      Reappraisals in Canadian History, Pre-confederation Carl Murray Wallace, 1993      Canadian Society in the Twenty-First Century, Fourth Edition Trevor W. Harrison, John W. Friesen, 2021-03-03 Confederation may have established Canada's nationhood in 1867 but the relationships framing Canada's modern existence go back much further Employing a unique socio historical perspective Canadian Society in the Twenty First Century examines three formative relationships that have shaped the country Canada and Quebec Canada and the United States and Canada and Indigenous nations Now in its fourth edition this engaging text offers students an overview of Canadian society through a series of connections rather than a collection of statistics Trevor W Harrison and John W Friesen weave together complex aspects of the nation's economic political and socio cultural development They guide readers to use this interdisciplinary framework to consider some of the tough questions that Canada is likely to face in adjusting to demands and challenges in the next few decades Reflecting the most current scholarship in the field this revised edition features new discussions on issues such as the current crisis of neo liberal globalization Canada's petroleum industry global warming the Wet suwet en dispute in 2020 and the COVID 19 pandemic Exploring the unique character of Canada today this text is a vibrant resource for sociology courses on Canadian society as well as courses in Canadian studies and Canadian history      Reappraisals in Canadian History, Pre-confederation Carl Wallace, Robert Matthew Bray, Angus Gilbert, 1996      Reappraisals in Canadian History, [ECH Master] Carl Wallace, 2008      The Canadian Modernists Meet Dean Jay Irvine, Dean Irvine, 2005 The Canadian Modernists Meet is a collection of new critical essays on major and rediscovered Canadian writers of the early to mid twentieth century F R Scott's well known poem The Canadian Authors Meet sets the theme for the volume a revisiting of English Canada's formative movements in modernist poetry fiction and drama As did Scott's poem Dean Irvine's collection raises questions about modernism and antimodernism nationalism and antinationalism gender and class originality and influence that remain central to contemporary research on early to mid twentieth century English Canadian literature The Canadian Modernists Meet is the first collection of its kind a gathering of texts by literary critics textual editors biographers literary historians and art historians whose collective research contributes to the study of modernism in Canada The collection stages a major reassessment of the origins and development of modernist literature in Canada its relationship to international modernist literature its regional variations its gender and class inflections and its connections to visual art architecture and film It presents a range of scholarly perspectives drawing upon the multidisciplinary that characterizes the international field of modernist studies Published in English      Reappraisal and Deaccessioning in Archives and Special Collections Laura Uglean Jackson, 2019-07-26

Archivists and archival institutions are reappraising and deaccessioning now more than ever before Archival reappraisal and deaccessioning have become vital tools for managing archival collections Reappraisal and Deaccessioning in Archives and Special Collections is the first book dedicated entirely to the topic of reappraising and deaccessioning in special collections and archives This edited volume features 13 chapters offering informed opinions practical recommendations and valuable examples for reappraising and deaccessioning Readers will gain important insight into the most important element of reappraisal and deaccessioning decision making Through mostly case studies the chapters address important issues inherent in these practices including ethical concerns donor relations appraisal questions and disposition options The case studies cover collaborative and solo projects various material types such as manuscripts records and artifacts and a range of scenarios from major projects involving thousands of linear feet of material to ad hoc projects removing single items Chapter topics include weeding vs deaccessioning getting rid of contaminated materials donor driven deaccessioning and using reappraisal and deaccessioning to improve access to existing collections Readers will find beneficial information on streamlining workflows carrying out procedures creating policies and implementing these practices locally Additionally the chapters cover the intricacies of disposition options such as transferring to other institutions returning material to donors and destruction This volume can serve as a valuable resource for large and small repositories experienced and novice archivists and those working with manuscript and archive collections

New Contexts of Canadian Criticism Ajay Heble, Donna Palmateer Pennee, J.R. Struthers, 1997-04-18 Times change lives change and the terms we need to describe our literature or society or condition what Raymond Williams calls keywords change with them Perhaps the most significant development in the quarter century since Eli Mandel edited his anthology Contexts of Canadian Criticism has been the growing recognition that not only do different people need different terms but the same terms have different meanings for different people and in different contexts Nation history culture art identity the positions we take discussing these and other issues can lead to conflict but also hold the promise of a new sort of community Speaking of First Nations people and their literature Beth Brant observes that Our connections are like the threads of a weaving While the colour and beauty of each thread is unique and important together they make a communal material of strength and durability New Contexts of Canadian Criticism is designed to be read to work in much the same manner

The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets, 1880-1897 D.M.R. Bentley, 2013-12-11 As one of the formative periods in Canadian history the late nineteenth century witnessed the birth of a nation a people and a literature In this study of Canada's first school of poets D M R Bentley combines archival work including extensive research in periodicals and newspapers with close readings of the work of Charles G D Roberts Archibald Lampman Bliss Carman William Wilfred Campbell Duncan Campbell Scott and Frederick George Scott Bentley chronicles the formation reception national and international successes and eventual disintegration after the 1895 War Among the Poets of the Confederation Group whose poetry forever changed the perception and direction of Canadian literature With the aid of biographical political and sociological analyses Bentley s literary history delineates the group s political aesthetic and thematic dispositions and characteristics and contextualizes them not only within Canadian history and politics but also within contemporary intellectual and literary currents including Romantic nationalism Canadianism and poetic formalism Bentley casts new light on the poets commonalities such as their debt to Young Ireland their commitment to careful workmanship and their participation in the American mind cure movement as well as on their most accomplished and anthologized poems from 1880 to 1897 In the process he presents a compelling case for the literary and historical importance of these six men and their poems in light of Canada s cultural and political past and defends their right to be known as Canada s first poetic fraternity at a time when Canada was striving to achieve literary and national distinction The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets 1880 1897 is an erudite and innovative work of literary history and critical interpretation that belongs on the bookshelf of every serious scholar of literary studies Modern Realism in English-Canadian Fiction Colin Hill,2012-01-01 Much of the scholarship on twentieth century Canadian literature has argued that English Canadian fiction was plagued by backwardness and an inability to engage fully with the movement of modernism that was so prevalent in British and American fiction and poetry Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction re evaluates Canadian literary culture to posit that it has been misunderstood because it is a distinct genre a regional form of the larger international modernist movement Examining literary magazines manifestos archival documents and major writers such as Frederick Philip Grove Morley Callaghan and Raymond Knister Colin Hill identifies a modern realism that crosses regions as well as urban and rural divides A bold reading of the modern realist aesthetic and an articulate challenge to several enduring and limiting myths about Canadian writing Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction will stimulate important debate in literary circles everywhere Home-work Cynthia Conchita Sugars,2004-06-22 Canadian literature and specifically the teaching of Canadian literature has emerged from a colonial duty to a nationalist enterprise and into the current territory of postcolonialism From practical discussions related to specific texts to more theoretical discussions about pedagogical practice regarding issues of nationalism and identity Home Work constitutes a major investigation and reassessment of the influence of postcolonial theory on Canadian literary pedagogy from some of the top scholars in the field Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library,1996 Special Bibliography Series ,1957 Dominant Impressions Gerald Lynch,Angela Robbeson,1999 Canadian critics and scholars along with a growing number from around the world have long recognized the achievements of Canadian short story writers However these critics have tended to view the Canadian short story as a historically recent phenomenon This reappraisal corrects this mistaken view by exploring the literary and cultural antecedents of the Canadian short story Published in English British Foreign Policy 1874-1914 Sneha Mahajan,2003-08-27 A challenging analysis of British Foreign Policy is provided at a time when Britain possessed the biggest Empire that humankind has ever known In this Empire India had a unique position comprising 97 per cent of Britain s Asiatic Empire All British statesmen deemed it essential to maintain their hold over India whatever the risk or cost of doing so This work focuses on aspects that have been hitherto marginalized It also contributes to debates surrounding the origins of the First World War the multipolar diplomacy of the late nineteenth century and the nature of imperial connections RE: Reading the Postmodern Robert David Stacey, 2011-01-14 It would be difficult to exaggerate the worldwide impact of postmodernism on the fields of cultural production and the social sciences over the last quarter century even if the concept has been understood in various even contradictory ways An interest in postmodernism and postmodernity has been especially strong in Canada in part thanks to the country's non monolithic approach to history and its multicultural understanding of nationalism which seems to align with the decentralized plural and open ended pursuit of truth as a multiple possibility as outlined by Jean Fran ois Lyotard In fact long before Lyotard published his influential work The Postmodern Condition in 1979 Canadian writers and critics were employing the term to describe a new kind of writing RE Reading the Postmodern marks a first cautious step toward a history of Canadian postmodernism exploring the development of the idea of the postmodern and debates about its meaning and its applicability to various genres of Canadian writing and charting its decline in recent years as a favoured critical trope A Reappraisal of Franco-American Relations, 1830-1871 Henry Blumenthal, 1871 Canadian Books in Print.
