Morality Truly Christian, Truly African Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor C.S.Sp.,2014-11-15 Given the largely Eurocentric nature of moral theology in the history of the Roman Catholic Church what will it take to invest the theological community in the history and moral challenges of the Church in other parts of the world especially Africa What is to be gained for the whole Church when this happens in a deep and lasting way In this timely and important study Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor brings greater theological clarity to the issue of the relationship between Christianity and African tradition in the area of ethical foundations He also provides a constructive example of what fundamental moral theology done from an African and Christian especially Catholic moral theological point of view could look like Following a brief history of the development of African Christian theology Odozor examines responses of African theologians to African tradition and Christian responses to the reality of non Christian religions In a context where the African religious experience and heritage are powerful sources of meaning and identity Christian evangelization raises questions both about the African primal religions and about Christianity itself and its claims Odozor takes up the subject of moral reasoning in an African Christian theological ethics and concludes with case studies that show how the African Church has tried to inculturate moral discourse on a religiously pluralistic continent and relate the healing gospel message to African situations Students and scholars of moral theology and ethics and church leaders will profit from the issues raised in Morality Truly Christian Truly African

Martin Buber and Feminist Ethics James W. Walters,2003-10-01 As a deeply religious thinker who disclaimed all rationalistic systems Martin Buber produced an insightful critique of modern philosophical ethics one that became productive soil for another nontraditional philosophical ethic feminism s care ethic In light of the recent emphasis on the new morality antifoundationalism and postmodernism in ethics the dialogical ethics of Martin Buber merits close examination Most important Walters compares and contrasts Buber s and feminism s personalist ethics in light of two considerations the lack of attention by feminist writers to the feminist Buber linkage and the long standing and general inattention by twentieth century thinkers to the ethical dimensions of Buber s thought
